A SAD TALE!

Or How They Socked it to Him.

"Man wants but little here below,
But wants that little long."
At least 'tis true, as all do know.
If the fit of his socks is wrong.
But of all the wrongs he has to bear
And with christian fortitude meet.
In magnitude none can compare
With that of sock discolored feet.
If at night he removes his socks
And finds his feet an inky hue,
His language strong, his good wife shocks
And turns the atmosphere to blue.
His one ambition all else mocks,
And this passion fairly thrills him.
He thinks of him who sold the socks
And his own joy when he kills him.
This hitherto quite upright man,
—A creature now thirsting for gore—
And all this trouble first began
By his mistake about a store.
For if he had but come to us
And bought the kind we always sell,
The wrecked life of this poor cuss
We would not now have had to tell.

The moral of this sad, sad tale
Is plainly seen by every eye—
When you buy socks, you should not fail
To see the mark—"Hermsdorf's Dye."

Capt. Gen. Weyler Reconsiders a Rash Threat.

Consul General Williams Wins a Point and the Lives of Some Cuban Sympathizers are Saved.

HAVANA, May 18.—The action of Consul General Williams in protesting against the methods of trial of the prisoners of the American schooner, Competitor, adopted by the Spanish authorities, is worth more than a passing mention. Before the court martial closed, Consul General Williams' letter of protest was read. The representative of the United States quoted the treaties existing between the United States and Spain, and denied the right of the latter to try American citizens and others sailing under the American flag by other than civil hands, adding that even in the latter case they must be judged by ordinary and not by drum head military and naval courts and be permitted to employ legal counsel and present witnesses in evidence. A note by the judge advocate general, which had also been indorsed by Admiral Navarro, the highest naval officer of Spain in Cuba, ruling Consul General Williams' protest as without good ground and out of order, was also read and noted. Within three hours after the court martial closed its session, at a special meeting in the afternoon, its members sent to Admiral Navarro a sealed verdict, which was immediately opened and approved by the naval chief. The sentences of all five prisoners to death, in accordance with the verdict, were signed at once and preparations were made to have the men shot. Receiving no satisfactory response from the admiral, nor even an invitation to attend the proceedings, neither Consul General Williams nor any attachee of his office was present at the court martial, nor was he allowed to see the prisoners until after the trial had closed Naturally he laid the whole case before the state department at Washington by wire early and received instructions as prompt as energetic. When these arrived he went directly to the palace, where a stormy interview with Captain General Weyler occurred. The captain general told Consul General Williams that if the men had been convicted, as the latter supposed, they would most certainly be shot at sunrise the following morning, despite any protest the United States might make. "If you shoot them," said Mr. Williams, "my government instructs me to close its consulate here and demand my passports, and shall most certainly hold you and your government responsible should these prisoners be executed before our protest be given due consideration."

When Consul General Williams bowed himself out of the captain general's presence and drove back to his office the excitement that followed at the palace became almost indescribable. The president and judges of the supreme civil tribunal of the island, the chairman of the leading conservative parties and the managing director of the Spanish bank were called into consultation by Captain General Weyler and Admiral Navarro. The majority of these personages advised the authorities to suspend the execution pending higher instructions from Madrid.

General Weyler said no, that if the men were not executed he would resign. He so telegraphed the Spanish ministry, it is reported. In the meantime it appears the United States was, through Minister Taylor, also bringing pressure to bear at Madrid. Orders came from Spain to suspend all proceedings and directing the captain general and admiral to transmit all documents in the case to Madrid for consideration there by the supreme military and naval council and cabinet. General Weyler, it is said, also received a message telling him to await a more opportune moment to give up his command, as for diplomatic reasons the government could not afford at this crisis to have him suddenly resign. Consul General Williams had won. The transfer of the case to Madrid will give the prisoners at least a month or six weeks' respite.

OFFICIALS IN A STEW.

Several of Them to Stand Trial for Crooked Work in Office.

ANDERSON, Ind., May 18.—Official circles are getting the most violent shaking up in their history in this section. Justice of the Peace Sherman Makepeace and Constable Carter were arrested last night charged with extortion in collecting fees and other irregularities. Following close upon the conviction of Attorneys Dean for irregularities in practice, the case instituted against Attorney Herman Wilkie for disbarment and the proceedings against Prosecuting Attorney Scanlan, Attorney Call and Deputy Prosecutor Ross for accepting bribes, this movement has created much alarm among the lawyers and officeholders.

ADDITIONAL PEST IN INDIANA.

Wabash County Wheat and Rye Have a New Enemy.

WABASH, Ind., May 18.—In addition to the rust and the Hessian fly, which have been destroying the wheat and rye in Wabash county, the farmers of this locality have a new enemy to contend with. Ex-County Commissioner J. D. Starbuck, of Lagro township, has found thousands of woolly worms about an inch and a half in length and totally unlike any other pest he has ever seen destroying his corn crop. They appeared to come from a strip of woods and, invading a fine field of corn, ate four acres of the grain off just above the ground. Mr. Starbuck says they are in evidence in countless numbers on his place and farms adjacent and his neighbors are much alarmed by their appearance.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

The Supreme Court Reverses the Trademark Case.

Proposition to Change Custom House Rules—McCall Immigration Bill—Other News.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—In the supreme court of the United States today Justice White handed down the opinion of the court in the case of the Singer Sewing Machine trade mark. The judgment of the court below, the circuit court for the northern district of Illinois, which was against Singer, was reversed. The supreme court held, however, that others using the name "Singer" as a trade mark should show the source of manufacture.

PROPOSED CUSTOM RULE CHANGES.

The house committee on ways and means today decided to report favorably the bill to permit customs officials to deliver packages not exceeding $500 in value to express companies and other inland carriers under bond after appraisal on the wharfs. Jewelry and precious stones are excepted. It also authorized Mr. Evans, of Kentucky, to call up in the house under suspension of the rules the bill to permit the bottling of spirits under bond in distilleries.

REFUSED TO INVESTIGATE ELECTIONS.

By a vote of 6 to 41 the senate today refused to take up a resolution to investigate the alleged election frauds in Alabama in the Kolb-Oates election contest.

IMMIGRATION BILL.

The house committee on rules today decided to bring in a special order for the consideration of the McCall immigration bill and amendments today and tomorrow. The McCall bill provides an educational test and is substantially similar to the Lodge bill. The Stone bill, which provides for consular inspection, will be offered as a substitute. The rules committee also decided to give the committee on labor some time this week for bills reported from that committee.

SEPARATE CARS FOR NEGROES.

The supreme court of the United States, at Washington, decided today, in what is known as the "Jim Crow" case of Plessy vs. Ferguson, that the statute of the state of Louisiana requiring railroad companies to supply separate coaches for white and colored persons is constitutional, affirming the decision of the court below. Justice Brown delivered the opinion. Justice Harlan dissented.

GEORGIA SUNDAY LAW CONSTITUTIONAL.

Justice Harlan today delivered the opinion of the supreme court in the case of Pennington vs. the state of Georgia, involving the constitutionality of the state laws prohibiting the running of freight cars in Georgia on Sunday. The opinion held the law to be valid.

FATAL EFFECTS

Resulting From the Famous Anti-Diphtheretic Serum.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—A profound sensation has been caused among medical men of Germany and France through the fatal effects attending the administration of the famous anti-diphtheretic serum in the case of a child of an eminent Berlin physician.

A servant in the physician's household showing signs of diphtheria, the doctor, to prevent his child from contracting the disease administered an injection of the serum and the child died in a few minutes. United States Commercial Agent Moore, at Weimar, has made the incident the subject of a special report to the state department, in which, after telling of the various theories put forth by the medical authorities to account for the fatal action of the serum, he declares that the child died from nervous shock, although it has been concluded that the injection of the serum into a healthy person for prevention is a dangerous practice.

NEW INVENTION IN BICYCLES.

Claim Made That Pneumatic Tires Will Be Superceded.

LONDON, May 17.—A new bicycle invention which is looked upon as likely to supercede pneumatic tires is shortly to be presented to the public. It is vaguely described as a "frame bicycle pneumatically slung, while the wheels are solid tired." Thus it is claimed there is no danger of puncture, the resistence is perfect, there is an entire absence of vibration and the wheels can be produced at half the cost of the present machines.

Catholic Knights Form a Regiment.

ANDERSON, Ind., May 18.—The uniformed Catholic Knights of America commanderies in the gas belt are forming a regiment. This includes the commanderies at Anderson, Muncie, Alexandria and Elwood. The Anderson commandery will be divided into two companies. In doing this, however, the city would have to forfeit the honor of having the largest single commandery in the world.

Gold Shipment.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The engagement of $1,100,000 for export to Germany tomorrow accelerated the movement at 10:25 and general recessions were made, extending to 1 per cent. in Chicago gas.

SEVEN KILLED.

Frightful Results of a Cyclone

Which Swept Through Central Kansas.

Several Towns Wrecked and Debris Strewn Everywhere—List of the Victims.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 18.—A cyclone struck the north part of the town of Sabetha, a small place northeast of here near the Nebraska line, late last evening, destroying the Grand Island Railroad station and elevator and twenty dwellings. Twenty five persons were injured, several of whom will die. Twenty families were rendered homeless, losing everything they had.

FRANKFORT, Kan., May 18.—At 5 o'clock last evening a terrific cyclone swept down upon this town from the southwest. Everything in the north and west ends of the town was wrecked. Sixty buildings were razed to the ground. Some of the best residences in the town were blown to pieces. Reports coming in from the country, where heavy damage has been done, will materially swell the loss. Many persons are reported painfully injured, but so far as known no one has been killed. Many head of horses, cattle and other stock have been killed. The Methodist and Christian churches were demolished, and the Presbyterian church was wrecked.

BENTON, Kan., May 18.—A cyclone passed over the northwest corner of this county yesterday morning at about 1 o'clock. At Elva it tore down the house of Anderson Jones and killed the entire family. The dead are:

Anderson Jones, aged eighty.
Mrs. Jones, his wife, aged fifty-five.
Son, aged seventeen.
Daughter, aged twelve.
Daughter, aged ten.

KANSAS CITY, May 18.—News of the loss of life and destruction of property by yesterday's cyclone in Kansas, is slow in coming in, caused by the crippled condition of the telegraph wires.

What has been received makes it plain that previous estimates of the damage done were none too high, and in fact, may be added to when communication is completely reopened. Fully half a dozen towns were struck by the twister and the known dead is seven. The injured number fully thirty, many of whom it is feared are fatally hurt.

Reserve, a village on the Missouri Pacific railroad, in Brown county, seems to have felt the brunt of the storm. But five houses are said to have been left standing there. The list of killed at Reserve are as follows:

D. W. Terhune, aged sixty.
Ralph Sweeney, nine years.
Viola Phillips, four years.
Mrs. John Rynder.

The injured are: John Rynder, fatally; blind son, leg broken. William Mellions, father of Mrs. Dureson, internally injured. Mrs. D. W. Terhune and daughter, internally hurt. Sherman Phillips, bruised and cut. Perry Young and wife, cut and hurt. George Kennedy, cut and severely bruised. Ed. Phillips, arm broken. Harry Thompson and wife. Frank Jones, jaw broken. Mrs. Sweeney and three children, hurts and bruises. Rev. Mr. Parker wife and daughter, internally hurt. William Margrave, face and head bruised.

The town of Reserve is almost wiped out of existence. Hardly a house remains standing and wreckage is strewn everywhere. The white populace is homeless and great confusion prevails. Forty-four buildings in Reserve alone were razed. The barns and sheds of all the farmers living in the track of the storm were destroyed. The destruction came upon the villagers with scarcely no warning. The cloud was shaped like an umbrella and came from the southwest. The people fled precipitately to their cyclone cellars, but many never reached them. The confusion was indescribable. Darkness added to the crash of falling timbers, the cries of the hurt, and the almost deafening hiss and roar of the wind, struck terror to the hearts of all. After the storm had passed, those fortunate enough to have escaped the ravages set about helping the victims. All night long they searched for the wounded and missing and lanterns could be seen darting here and there. The injured are being well cared for. Fifty thousand dollars would not replace the damage at Reserve alone. The few houses standing are wrenched and broken.

JUDGE HOLT'S WILL.

The Noted Case Again Brought Up.

Generals Grant's and Sherman's Signatures Pronounced Genuine—A Notable Array of Counsel.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The trial of the noted Holt will case began today. It has been pending almost a year. The question at issue is the genuineness of a tattered, alleged will of former Judge Advocate General Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, which was found in the mails of the register of wills here last year. Judge Holt, who died in August, 1894, was supposed to have died intestate and the validity of the alleged will, whose mysterious appearance created widespread interest, has been vigorously contested. A notable array of counsel was present. The beneficaries under the alleged will are Miss Josephine Holt Throckmorton and Miss Lizzie Hynes, of Kentucky, between whom the estate was equally divided. Luke Develin, a war department clerk, was named as executor and for these appeared ex Congressman B. J. Butterworth, J. Darlington and Blair Lee. The counsel for the heirs at law are ex-Congressman Jere Wilson, ex-Assistant Attorney General Worthington and Attorneys Heald, of Washington, and Poston, of Louisville, Ky. The signatures of General Sherman and Mrs. W. T. Sherman, which are on the will, were identified as genuine by Senator Sherman, of Ohio, and Col. Fred Grant, of New York, testified to the genuineness of the signatures of the late President Grant.

NO CHOICE YET.

The Tenth Ballot for Bishop Unavailing.

Cranston Leads, With McCabe a Close Second—The Excitement is Intense.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 18.—Bishop Newman presided at today's session of the M. E. general conference. As soon as the reading of the journal was completed a motion was made to take the ninth ballot for bishop. Dr. Buckley at once opposed this on the ground that many of the ministers who went out of the city to preach on Sunday had not returned, and the voting was made a special order for 10 o'clock.

In the meantime the routine proceedings began with a continuation of the consideration of the report of the committee on itinerancy. A brief interruption was made to introduce Dr. J. C. Morris and A. B. Perkins, of Texas, fraternal delegates from the M. E. church south. It was Dr. Morris, concerning whom an unfortunate complication arose at the time of his first visit and he has returned in order that the conference may redeem itself. The gentleman was shown scant courtesy on the occasion of his previous appearance before the conference a day or two after it had met here. Both gentlemen were received this morning with applause.

The time until 10 o'clock was fully occupied in a discussion of the report of the committee on itinerancy and at that hour the ninth ballot was taken. Nearly an hour was consumed in counting the vote but immediately after the recess, the tellers entered the room. The report of the Bible society was being read and the customary applause broke out, but Bishop Newman promptly suppressed it. The ninth ballot was then announced. The whole number of votes cast was 500, making 334 necessary to a choice.

The result of the leaders was as follows:

C. C. McCabe, 238; Earl Cranston, 236; H. A. Buttz, 218; J. W. Hamilton, 159; T. B. Neeley, 59; J. W. E. Bowen, 17. No choice.

The result of the ballot proved to be a great surprise. The loss for McCabe was 32 Cranston 27, Buttz 62, Bowen 20, while the gain for Hamilton was 59 and for Neeley 40.

This bore out the rumor of a break to Neeley and Hamilton and the result of the tenth ballot was awaited with intense interest.

The vote was taken when Dr. Tetter, of Iowa, moved to defer all further balloting for bishop until the next general conference in 1900. No second was given and a great laugh was caused and the tellers retired to count the vote.

Bishop Newman at this point presented Rev. W. A. Atkinson, fraternal delegate from the British Wesleyan conference, who said a few words of farewell. Bishop Newman's response was a gem and called forth most prolonged applause. The report of the committee on revivals was then read. It showed no changes other than miner matters of routine were recommended.

Before the tenth and last ballot of the morning was announced, rumors of a Cranston-Hamilton combination began to gain circulation. This union of the east and west seemed to be a certainty when the result was announced. It was a gain for Hamilton of 21; for Cranston of 23; for Neeley of 24, and a loss of to McCabe of 15; to Bowen of 5, and to Buttz of 25. The combined vote was going to Cranston while so far as the east was concerned it divided between Neely and Hamilton. Should the next ballot show the Cranston-Hamilton combination to be non effective a trial of the Cranston-Neely combination will probably be made as the friends of Cranston are determined he shall win if possible. The eleventh ballot was taken and the conference recessed until 2:30 o'clock when the result will be announced.

LOG BOOM BREAKS

And Four Million Feet of Logs Escape.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 18.—The boom at the Peyton, Kimball and Barber saw mill at Superior broke last evening letting out about 4,000,000 feet of logs. About 2,000,000 feet of the logs which broke away from the Nemadji have drifted out into the lake and will probably be lost. Fears are expressed in regard to the safety of forty million feet of logs in booms at the mouth of the Brule river, which is now unprecedentedly high.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND.

The Catholic Prelate Financially Embarassed.

Vast Fortune of $1,500,000 Nearly Exhausted by Unlucky Deals and He is a Poor Man.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 18.—Archbishop Ireland three years ago was worth $1,500,000. Today he is practically a poor man. Through real estate speculation he made his vast fortune; through the same channel he has lost it. The fortune which the archbishop created and which has since taken wings was a private one. In no way will the church be affected directly by the archbishop's turn in fortune, but indirectly it means a loss to the church of a magnificent cathedral, a well-endowed school or both. The archbishop is an unselfish man and it has been his life dream to be able to erect with his own funds and present to the church a cathedral equal to if not greater than any in the United States. Up to the time of the panic in 1893 everything appeared favorable to a realization of his dream. Since then his hopes have received a severe shock, with the impairment of his fortunes, yet if there is anything to be saved of the archbishop's estate it will be saved.

Three months ago the archbishop awoke to the fact that he was very seriously embarrassed. He owned large tracts of property in St Paul and minor holdings outside of the city, but the property was unimproved and brought in no income. He had borrowed large sums of money with which to carry on his deals and to meet the interest and principal of different mortgages which were fast becoming due he is now compelled to surrender large amounts of property to satisfy clamoring creditors.

The archbishop admitted that he had been caught on a large amount of real estate at the end of the boom and that he had bought property at figures which no one else would pay. But he said he did so through his unbounded faith in the future of St. Paul real estate. He added that his affairs had been in bad shape, but that with the aid of his friends he had been able to make a number of settlements and hoped that his financial condition would soon improve.

MURDER BY TORTURE.

An Indian Chief in Prison on That Charge.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 18.—In jail at Juneau, waiting trial on the charge of murder, is Chief Ye Teetleeh, the tyee of the Hoonan Indians, a small tribe of some hundred members, occupying Chicakikoff island, about 100 miles southerly from Juneau. The offense with which the old chief is charged is the murder by torture of his nephew, whom he accused of witchcraft. The chief had a disease affecting his right leg, which had gradually eaten the greater part away. He dreamed his nephew had bewitched him and on the strength of this he proceeded to inflict punishment for the crime. The victim's knees were bent close back and in this position he was bound tightly to a tree. An iron band, a quarter of an inch thick, was then placed around his face, sinking into the nose and covering the eyes. This was also made fast to the tree, so that he was unable to move his head in any direction. He was left in this position to starve to death. He lived five days. He was twenty years of age.

MURDER CASE.

Evidence Accumulating Against Blanther at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Evidence is accumulating against J. E. Blanther, suspected of the murder of Mrs. Pholpena Langfeldt, on Friday night. Through the unwilling aid of his bosom companion, George Dodge, and the voluntary statement of I. H. Lynch, a fellow roomer, Blanthers movement has been in part traced. It is believed that the murder of Mrs. Langfeldt took place before 11 o'clock on Friday night. Between 11 o'clock and midnight Blanther entered the bath room of the residence where he roomed to wash his hands. When J. H. Lynch started to enter the room Blanther hastily departed without saying a word, and as Lynch stepped to the wash basin he was surprised to see that it was reddened as though with blood. It is said that the police have recovered from a pawn shop the diamond ring which was stolen from Mrs. Langfeldt by the murderer. A description of Blanther has been telegraphed all over the country.

GUARDIAN WEDS HIS AGED WARD

"Uncle Joe" Smith Aged Eighty, Takes a Wife.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 18.—"Uncle Joe" Smith, aged eighty years, was married yesterday to Mrs. Louisa Lane, who is the only older resident of Honey Creek township than himself. Several weeks ago she was declared to be incapable of managing her large estate and "Uncle Joe" was appointed her guardian.

Death in a Fire.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 18.—A close search of the ruins of the Markham house block, which was swept clean by fire last night, revealed this morning the charred remains of a human body, which proved to be that of W. T. Zachary, a negro driver, who was asleep in a carriage in Milam & Patterson's livery stable, which was one of the first buildings destroyed. So far as known no other lives were lost.

Demonstration at a Funeral.

PRETORIA, May 18.—There was a great demonstration today upon the occasion of the funeral of F. L. Grey, the reform committeeman who committed suicide by cutting his throat while in jail while laboring under melancholia induced by his prosecution. Barney Barnata rode in the first carriage. The streets were packed with people. Many wreaths were sent by Grey's fellow prisoners.

LEGAL MENTION.

News as Found Around the Court House.

The Commissioners Have Given Ferris a License to Run the Boot Jack Saloon, Near Lindenwood.

The county commissioners have given Ferris, the saloonkeeper, a license to continue his "boot jack" saloon, near Lindenwood cemetery.

The trial of the cases against William Block and Jacob Hellinger have been set in the circuit court for June 17.

Theodore Robbins and Mary Bond, Daniel M. Hayer and Catherine C. Quinn have been licensed to wed.

The county commissioners are kept busy with an examination of the plans for the new court house. They are excellent in their design and details and none of them give the cost over $500,000. The commissioners require that a bond shall be filed that the building can be constructed within 10 per cent. of the estimated cost.

The Nintz-Ward provoke case is on trial before Justice France.

An affidavit has been filed against a party named you ng for provoke. Justice Bullerman will hear the case.

LAW OF THE ROAD.

The old trouble between bicyclers and teamsters, relative to the rights on the highway, has begun to arise again. Each party will do well to remember that the other is entitled to half the road. This matter has been tested several times in the court and every time with the same result. The teamster is obliged to give half the road to the bicycle, and on the other hand a drove of sweating "scorchers" have no right to expect a teamster to turn out in the ditch to make way for a wild road race. The law says to divide the road and turn to the right. Cyclers should remember also since the wheel is recognized by law as a vehicle they have no more right on the sidewalk than has a man on horseback or in a carriage.

SPECIAL VERDICT LAW.

Attorneys of Indianapolis, who practice in the circuit and superior courts, are growing more and more dissatisfied with the special verdict law, and it is not at all unlikely that a powerful legal influence will be brought to bear on the next legislature, looking toward the repeal of the law. Many of the attorneys say the law confuses juries, for in answering the great number of interrogatories propounded to them they are apt to lose sight of important points. It is said that some of the corporation attorneys are dissatisfied with the law, notwithstanding the fact that corporations lobbied in its interest. The Indianapolis Bar association has taken up the question of repealing the law and at the last meeting of the association a committee was appointed to take steps in this direction. All of the county judges are in favor of having the law repealed.

FOREST FIRES

Still Raging in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Fire Spreads From the Woods to the Farm Buildings and the Loss is Considerable.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., May 18.—Forest fires are still raging in many places throughout this county. Word was received from McGee's Mills this morning that five houses and a church have been destroyed. At Montgomery the fires are burning fiercely and many houses and barns are in danger. The Barrett hotel at Barrett, four miles from this place, was burned last night and the town is entirely surrounded by a big woods, which is all ablaze. At Lick Run, Mitchell & Co.'s logs, which were lying in the run, were eaten up by the flames. In Goshen township, Archer Spencer's barn was burned last night, and other barns and many houses throughout the township are in danger.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., May 18.—Forest fires are raging in Tucker county. Yesterday hundreds of men ineffectually fought the fires which are burning more fiercely this morning than last night. Lumber men estimate the loss at $500,000. The Middle Fork portion of the county is completely wiped out. The adjoining forests are now burning with indications that the entire county will be devastated unless a rain prevents. Weather dry and warm with high winds. Farmers have left their homes to seek refuge in larger towns. So far no deaths are reported.

HOSTLER KILLED.

Stabbed in the Head With a Pitchfork.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 18.—George Bradley, one of the Bradley brothers, a well known turfman, had a row with Griff White, a stable hand, which resulted in Bradley jabbing a pitchfork into White's head, from which he died. Bradley was arrested.

Stove House Fails.

LANSING, Mich., May 18.—E. Bement & Sons, extensive manufacturers of stoves and agricultural implements, will this afternoon file two trust deeds to secure claims amounting to $300,000, about equally divided between local and outside creditors.

WAS NOT EXPECTED.

Death of Charles Roeger on Sunday Afternoon.

Mrs. Rebecca Davis, of No. 5 Randolph Street, Dead—Miss Dollie Brune's Death.

Charles Roeger died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at his home, No. 26 West Main street, from hernia. He had been a sufferer for a long time, but his death yesterday was unexpected. He had been engaged in the saloon business at the above place for a long time. The deceased was a member of the Fort Wayne Saengerbund, the German Military society and the Allen County Licensed Liquor Dealers' association, all of which organizations will turn out at the funeral, which will be held at the residence at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Bosch conducting the services. Mr. Roeger leaves a wife, three sons and one daughter. He was fifty years of age.

DAVIS.

Mrs. Rebecca L. Davis, wife of S. C. Davis, died at the family residence, No. 5 Randolph street, yesterday, aged fifty-four years. Death was due to paralysis, from which she had been a sufferer for eight or nine years. The funeral will be held at the residence at 9:20 Tuesday morning.

BRUNE.

Dollie, the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brune, died yesterday at the family residence, No. 156 Greely street, from palpitation of the heart. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon, at 1:30, at the house, and at 2 o'clock at the Christian church, Rev. P. J. Rice conducting the services.

PEARSON.

The one-day-old child of Nicholas Pearson, of St. Joe township, died this morning and was buried this afternoon.

UNIQUE SERVICE

Held by Young Ladies at the Christian Church.

The service at the Christian church last evening was conducted by the young ladies of the church and was unique and interesting in its character. The church had been beautifully decorated with pot and cut flowers and presented a very neat appearance. The music was furnished by a chorus of lady voices and four young ladies served as ushers. The hymns were announced, the scriptures read and the prayer offered by young ladies. "A Beautiful Woman" was the subject of a short sermon, delivered by the pastor. He said in part: "Beauty is a quality of the soul, as well as of the face and form. Indeed there is no real beauty of the face unless it reveals the inner qualities of gentleness and intelligence." He selected Ruth the Moabiliste maiden as his model of a beautiful woman and said, "she was beautiful in the manner of her speech, in her unfaltering friendship and in her devotion to duty." In conclusion he said, "young ladies you can not buy beauty although you will find plenty of places where they profess to have it for sale. Fine clothes, a manufactured complexion or costly diamonds will not hide an unlovely nature. No woman is truely beautiful unless she has been adorned with the beauty of holiness." A similar service will be held next Sunday evening.

MARSHALL COMINCAVISH

Pleasantly Remembered by His K. of P. Friends.

Last Saturday was the fortieth anniversary of the birth of Marshall Comincavish, the master of finance of the Phoenix lodge, Knights of Pythias, and in the evening a large number of knights visited his home on Spy Run avenue to congratulate him on this auspicous event in his life. Mr. and Mrs. Comincavish received their guests in a graceful manner and entertained them most royally. Not long after their arrival Mr. James M. Robinson called Marshall to the parlors and in a speech, such as Jim only can make, presented him with a costly K. of P. charm as a mark of esteem of his friends in the lodge. Mr. Comincavish, although surprised, managed to thank his donors as best his embarassment would allow and the balance of the evening was spent in a social way. Mrs. Comincavish served the knights with refreshments and all present enjoyed themselves most thoroughly. Mr. Comincavish is the foreman of the winding department at the Fort Wayne electric works and has many friends.

FIFTY THOUSAND.

That is the Population of the City of Fort Wayne.

The new city directory, which has just been issued by R. L. Polk & Co., gives Fort Wayne a population of 50,000 souls. In the directory there are 16,250 names, and the common ratio of multiplication which is use in figuring out the population gives the above figure. This is a material increase over the population of last year, as a comparison of the old and new directories will show. Fort Wayne is on the forward march in respect to size and business and it is the best city in the state today, barring Indianapolis, only on account of its larger size.

Gave Up the Ghost.

(Atlanta Constitution.)

The Alabama Telephone Construction company, known as the Harrison Telephone exchange, of Selma, has collapsed. The exchange was built just eighteen months ago to compete with the Southern Bell Telephone exchange. The poles and wires were sold yesterday at a nominal price, said to be enough to cover the outstanding indebtedness. The original investment proved a total loss.

THE SUNDAY LAW.

Two Saloon Men Arrested for Violations.

Gus Jackson and William Miller Were Rounded Up by Policeman Hines Yesterday.

Officer Hines went out yesterday and gathered in a couple of saloons who were violating the law. In the afternoon he passed the restaurant on the corner of Wayne and Calhoun streets and saw two men passing from the restaurant into Gus Jackson's saloon, which is in the rear, with a door on Wayne street. The men both had bicycles which they were taking in with them. Hines demanded an explanation from the restaurant man; also from Jackson, but the explanation was not satisfactory, so he filed an affidavit against Jackson for allowing persons other than his own family in his saloon on Sunday. The trial was set for 2 o'clock this afternoon before Mayor Scherer.

Hines also went out Spy Run avenue and found William Miller's saloon, near the St. Joe bridge, with the screen closed so tight that a person with an x-ray machine could not have looked into the place. Hines also filed an affidavit against Miller and his trial was set for this afternoon.

BOTH WERE FINED.

Late this afternoon the cases of Jackson and Miller were heard in police court and Mayor Scherer fined both parties $10 and costs, amounting to $19.50 each.

NEW POLICEMEN

Will be Appointed by the Board Tonight.

Over a Hundred Applicants Want to Get Positions on the Force—Meeting Tonight.

The board of public safety will meet tonight and it is reasonably certain that a number of changes in the police force will be made. The board had an informal meeting this afternoon for the purpose of talking the matter over, but no appointments will be made before this evening. There are over 100 applicants for positions upon the police force, some wanting to be captains, others lieutenant, others sergeant and still more for patrolmen. It is likely that the board has its mind made up as to who will be appointed, but nothing definite has been heard.

BOARD OF HEALTH

Meets to Elect a City Bacteriologist.

Indications are That Dr. L. P. Drayer Will be His Own Successor in That Position.

The board of health met this forenoon for the purpose of electing a city bacteriologist. The matter was thoroughly discussed but no action was taken this morning. Another meeting is to be held this afternoon when the matter will be disposed of. It seemed to be the opinion of the members of the board that the present city bacteriologist, Dr. L. P. Drayer, would be chosen to succeed himself. There were several other candidates.

INDIANA LITERARY CLUBS.

Mrs. Jennie Ray Ormsby on the Program.

The program is out for the state convention of the Indiana Union of Literary clubs, which is to be held at Connorsville, June 3, 4 and 5. The committee on selecting speakers were very fortunate in securing Miss Jennie Ray Ormsby, of this city, for a paper on "Man a Perfect Whole." Mrs. Ormsby has been a teacher of physical culture and the art of expression in this city for almost four years, and her work shows that she not only understands developing the physical part of the system but the mental as well. Although she came here from the Emerson college of physical culture, the largest school of the kind in the world, its system and plan of work was little known to us. In her hands the work has grown greatly and she now has large classes not only in Fort Wayne but in several of our surrounding cities. The delegates to the convention will not only be entertained by her paper but greatly benefitted if they follow her instructions. Quite a number will attend this convention from Fort Wayne.

An exciting accident happened this afternoon at the Calhoun street crossing of the Nickel Plate railroad. Mrs. L. C. Hunter was driving north with her baby in a two seated carriage. A street car was standing near the track and as the horse approached it he shied to one side. One of the buggy wheels struck a post at the edge of the sidewalk, and was torn off. This upset the buggy and threw out both Mrs. Hunter and her child. Mrs. Hunter fell under the carriage and persons who witnessed the accident expected to see her badly injured, but fortunately such was not the case. She escaped without injury, although she was covered with mud. The child was also unhurt, its escape from injury being almost miraculous.

Murder Trial Set.

AKRON, Ohio, May 18.—The trial of Romulus Cottell, the murderer of the Stone family at Tallmage, six weeks ago, was set today by Judge J. A. Kohler for June 22.

THE cyclone has begun its destructive and deadly work.

THE growing crops were greatly benefited by the rains of Saturday and Sunday nights.

THE vice presidency of the United States may not be a big office in itself, but it offers a possibility for the presidency to some men to whom it is not otherwise and directly attainable.

ALL the delegates to the national republican convention have now been elected. Leaving out of the McKinley column all doubtful votes, all the votes that are contested by delegates who are unfavorable to McKinley, and he will still have enough unmistakable, unquestioned and uncontested votes to nominate him.

LAST Friday West Virginia adopted a gold and McKinley platform, while Wyoming adopted a silver and McKinley platform. As a straddler McKinley seems to be catching the national delegate votes all right.

THE strike in Milwaukee has already demonstrated the foolishness of the strike system. The strikers are out of place, out of pocket, and hundreds of families that once had plenty and were happy are now miserable and hungry.

HAS the long-dreamed-of flying machine come at last? No less an authority than Professor Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, says that Professor Langley, of the Smithsonian institute, has actually produced a machine that will fly. The names of the two gentlemen are sufficient guarantee that, contrary to most reports of flying machine inventions, this is not a "fake." But even scientific experts make mistakes.

DURING the encampment at South Bend last week an old veteran was run down by a wheelman and died in a short time from the effects of his injuries. It is reported that the accident was the result of carelessness on the part of the cyclist and great indignation is expressed over the accident. There are a few wheelmen who are a trifle imprudent in the manipulation of their machines, but a number of accidents would be avoided if pedestrians would remember that it is the wheelman's place to do the dodging and continue their course without reference to the wheel. The average cyclist understands how to avoid a collision and will do so if left to himself.

Foreign Crops.

The foreign statistics gathered by the agricultural department show the crop conditions throughout the year. The summary is as follows:

Great Britain—The crop outlook everywhere is good and promises a harvest about two weeks earlier than usual. This would diminish the imports for the remainder of the current cereal year by about 5,000,000 bushel.

France—With normal weather until harvest the wheat crop will more than suffice for home requirements. A surplus for export is confidently predicted by French agricultural journals and statisticians, some expecting that it will amount to 40,000,000 bushels. This quantity would affect prices, and especially if the French government should pay a bounty on exports.

Austria-Hungary—The weather has been favorable and the crops promise well.

Roumania—Cold weather in April retarded the crops but the outlook is generally promising.

Russia—Excellent prospects of a crop above the average in quantity and quality are generally reported. The unfavorable March weather in the south is found to have done serious damage. Spring sowings have been completed under good conditions.

Hold Over Senators.

Chairman Holt of the democratic state committee has issued a call for a meeting May 27. One of the matters to be considered is the action the party will take in regard to the twenty-five hold-over senators.

The committee at first agreed as soon as the first decision of the supreme court in the apportionment case was handed down to not contest the seats of the hold-overs if the republicans would agree not to contest the validity of the law of 1885. This proposition was refused by the republicans, who promptly proceeded to bring suit. They were beaten in the courts. The proposition of the democrats is annulled and the party is now free to do as it sees fit.

Governor Matthews still clings to his view that the hold-overs should not be contested. He said the districts were the same with the single exception of Senator McCord's district, to which Brown county has since been added. As to this district Governor Matthews does not say what should be done. If the seat is not contested Brown county is disfranchised, as it is represented by a senator as to whose election it had nothing to do. In fact, this is practically true in all of the districts represented by hold-overs, the old 1885 combinations having been reinstated since the law under which the hold-overs were elected was operative. The other districts are the same, but the counties composing them had no voice in the election of the present incumbents.

Wanted, Reciprocity.

While our reciprocity treaties were in operation live American beeves were shipped to Europe in enormous numbers. They brought in England $2 a hundredweight more than the quarters of dressed beef did. English feeders bought the American cattle, fattened them and in every case put them upon the market as "prime English beef." Since the abrogation of the reciprocity treaties the export of live cattle from this country to Great Britain alone has fallen off over 73,000 a year. Great Britain now proposes to make meat dealers mark all beef distinctly, specifying which is home grown and which is foreign. Germany excludes our live cattle altogether, and all dressed meat that has not been inspected by our government. The authorities at Freiburg, Germany, even went so far as to require dealers to place upon American meats placards declaring that these meats were only superficially inspected and no guarantee as to their wholesomeness could be given, and the United States has put up with this indignity. France excludes American cattle altogether and will only admit dressed pork when it has been inspected and certified. Denmark and Belgium have similar regulations to those of Germany, while Russia will admit no American pork at all.

Now, every one of these nations sends millions of dollars' worth of imports into the United States annually. While American meat growers are being ruined, foreign merchants and manufacturers are growing rich off our money. We owe it to our rural population to inaugurate reciprocity once more. If the nations named will not negotiate reciprocity treaties, then let us have retaliation.

A Great Show.

The most splendid pageant of the closing years of this century will be the coronation of young Nicholas II as the czar of all the Russias. The meaning of this phrase is that all the provinces belonging to the czar's empire are called Russias of one grade and another, and as there is something like a hundred of them, the expression "czar of all the Russias" implies more than even the title of "empress of the Indies."

Hundreds, if not thousands, of Americans will be in the ancient city of Moscow to witness the event of May 26. They are said to be well liked in Russia because they are so rich. Probably the Russians do not know how many poor Americans there are at home.

The Kremlin at Moscow is really a hill in the center of the town. It is heavily walled and guarded and entered through gates in the walls. Upon the top of the hill is a little church and in that church all the czars of Russia have been crowned for the past 350 years. In the little church will be present at the coronation, besides the royalties, representatives of the nations, from Li Hung Chang to modest Mr. Breckinridge, the American minister. The heads of all the provinces subject to Russia will also be there in their rainbow hued native robes. The coronation ceremonies will last 24 hours. May 18 Nicholas II will be 28 years old. If he has any strength of character of his own, it has not yet been discovered.

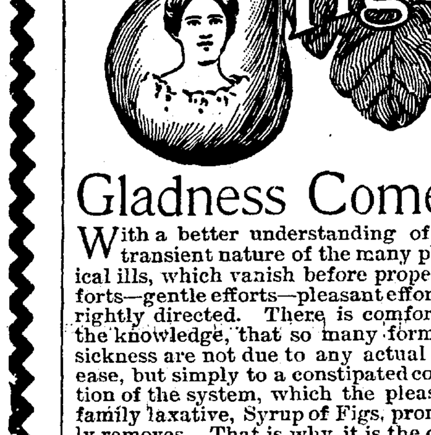

Many excellent persons who under no circumstances would permit a copy of The Fireside Companion to come into their families nevertheless owe a greater debt than they are aware of to its founder, the late George Munro. When he, a poor young man, got a place at very small pay in the establishment of the American News company, he did not calmly anchor himself there for life. His knowledge of the wide difference between the cost of making books and the high price at which they sell set him thinking out a plan for providing all the people with cheap and good literature. He matured the plan, and it made him a millionaire. Not only that, but it gave the people of this country many good books in cheap form. To Munro's Seaside Library thousands of intelligent persons owe a debt of genuine gratitude. The novels Munro brought out in the Seaside collection were many of them of the best class. Mr. Munro was a publisher, a philanthropist and many other things, but his memory will shine brightest of all as that of the man who brought down the price of books throughout the whole country and made it possible for poor people to enjoy good reading.

A new way of raising church funds has been devised in the west which threatens to supersede even the strawberry festival. The church goes into the farming business. Some 50 acres of land are set apart, and the brethren bestow their services gratuitously in cultivating it. Whether this pays better than for each man to raise the products on his own farm, then sell them and give the money to the church, is not stated. Probably the brethren get more fun out of tilling the church farm. At Wayne, Neb., the attempt will be made to lift a church debt by growing and selling grain and garden vegetables.

The servant girl will be more of a terror than ever now that she has shown herself fully capable of organizing a union and engineering a successful strike. The $15 a month striking maids of all work in Superior, Wis., will obtain from their employers in future is fully equal to the pay of an average farm laborer in many parts of the country. It is better, considering the fact that the houseworking girl gets all her living, than the average public school teacher gets in New York city.

The faculty, students and alumni of Antioch college, which Horace Mann founded, issued a neat little memorial book in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of his birth, May 4. In the front of the volume are quoted the following words from Horace Mann's last baccalaureate address to his students in June, 1859: "I beseech you to treasure up in your hearts these, my parting words: Be ashamed to die until you have won some victory for humanity."

A cousin of the Duke of Montrose, a nobleman in his own right and a lineal descendant of Robert Bruce, Sir Robert James Stuart Graham, is at present a humble clerk in Brooklyn, and out of employment at that, living in a tenement house.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

COLTS DEFEAT SAGINAW.

From Jackson the colts went to Saginaw, where they defeated that team yesterday, the score being 10 to 3. Knell pitched for Fort Wayne and surprised the lumbermen by striking out eleven men. This is the greatest number of strikeouts made in any game in the Inter-state league thus far this season. Two Fort Wayne men were struck out by the Saginaw pitcher. Fort Wayne plays at Saginaw today and tomorrow.

JACKSON DEFEATS TOLEDO.

Yesterday Jackson played at Toledo a game which was scheduled for September. Jackson won by a score of 13 to 6. The Jackson club is not going to be in the tail end of the procession by any means. They are a good team and Leigh Lynch will see to it that they give the best of them a close hustle. As soon as Jackson gets a long stretch of games on their own home grounds then look out for them.

NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES.

Cincinnati 2, Brooklyn 1; Boston 5, Pittsburg 4; Cleveland 8, New York 2; Washington 7, St. Louis 1; Baltimore 8; Chicago 7.

NOTES FROM THE GAME.

Poor Toledo. She is on the toboggan.

Earl Sumner, who was loaned by Fort Wayne to Saginaw, is doing fine work for the lumbermen. He takes a crack at the ball at every opportunity, and his batting has already won games for them.

Portland, Ind., has written to Captain Tebeau asking for a pitcher for their semi-professional club. Tebeau has been thinking of farming Robb out to them, subject to recall, at any time if he should be needed.

Thad Troy, of the Washington, Pa., team banged the ball over the fence for a home run at New Castle a few days ago, and Millionaire McKeown, the manager of the club, presented him with a new $45 suit of clothes.

Wheeling is already boasting of what they will do with the Fort Wayne colts when they get to that place. The Nailers are talking as if they expect to take three straight games. It's dimes to doughnuts that we will not give them more than one game.

The rivalry between the clubs in the eastern division of the Inter-State league is something frightful to behold. They all seem to have it in for each other in such a way that nothing but scalping knives and meat axes can ever settle the question of supremacy.

AMONG THE AMATEURS.

The East Main street base ball team defeated the Lakeside team Saturday by a score of 23 to 15

The Pennsylvania Juniors Saturday defeated the Royal Blues by a score of 8 to 5. The game was played on the jail flats.

The long talked of game between the Blakes and Flannigans occurred at Centlivre's park. The Flannigans had sixteen runs and the Blakes had thirty-three in the ninth inning and no men out. The game was called on account of darkness. The feature of the game was the pitching of "Spotsy" for the Flannigans.

BASE BALL

At Lakeside park Thursday, Saturday and Sunday. Toledo vs. Fort Wayne. Games called at 3:30.

WRECK OFF VANCOUVER

The Sad Fate of the Cadzow Forest.

Indians Find a Life Buoy Which Bears the Name of the Craft and Tells of Her Fate.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 18.—At last some definite news has been received as to the fate of the British bark Cadzow Forest, which has so long been missing, and which has been given up as lost. From news received yesterday it appears that the fears that the vessel was wrecked were only two well founded. It will be remembered that the vessel was last seen off the mouth of the Columbia river, having come up from San Francisco to load grain for Portland. Owing to the storm, she was blown out to sea and never again heard of. The little missionary steamer, Glad Tidings, belonging to the Methodist church, arrived in port from a cruise among the Indian missionary stations last night. While at China Hat, on the west coast of Vancouver island, Captain Allcock reports that some Indians showed him a life buoy bearing the name Cadsow Forest, which they had picked up the day before on the beach. The Indians also say that a large amount of wreckage and lumber was also strewn along the beach.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

Sound Money Democrats Have Little Hope of Controlling It.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.—Sound money democrats have about abandoned hope of controlling the Chicago convention. It looks now as if they set a bad example in Michigan by applying the unit rule, and that the free silver men in many of the southern states will insist upon giving the sound money men a dose of their own medicine. There is scarcely a southern state where the democrats did not expect to have divided delegations with the minority for sound money. There is no southern state in which the gold men expected to control the majority of the delegates, but they had hoped to make a fair showing in Georgia, North Carolina, Alabama, Louisiani, Tennessee and Texas. With the application of the unit rule, it is the opinion here, they cannot hope to control a vote in a single southern state.

They fear that the free silver men in Kentucky will predominate, and apply the unit rule, thus depriving Mr. Carlisle of the indorsement in his own state for sound money. Senator Lindsay believes that the free silver men will control. He is so confident of it that he told General St. Clair, of West Virginia, a few day ago, that he had decided not to be a candidate for delegate to the Chicago convention. Much depends upon Illinois and Indiana. The chances are that Illinois will elect a free silver delegation.

Mills Destroyed.

TERRENON, Mexico, May 18.—The large flouring mills and grain elevators of the Allianza Manufacturing company, situated here, was destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $150,000. The mills had recently been equipped with new machinery and were the largest in northern Mexico. The amount of insurance is small. There was a large stock of grain consumed.

ROYAL AFFAIR.

The Princess of Wales Holds a Reception.

Mrs. Calvin S. Brice and Mrs. Douglass Grant Among the Distinguished Guests.

LONDON, May 18.—The princess of Wales, assisted by her daughters and Prince Charles, of Denmark, held the largest drawing room reception of the season at Buckingham palace today, in behalf of the queen. The weather was warm and sultry, but great crowds lined the hall. The marquis of Salisbury and the commander-in-chief, Lord Wolseley, as well as all the members of the diplomatic corps, were among those present. The Americans presented were the duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Conseulo Vanderbilt, Mrs. Calvin S. Brice and her two daughters and Mrs. Douglas Grant, of New York. Mrs. Henry Asquith, formerly Miss Margot Tennant, was also presented Thos. F. Bayard, United States ambassador, and Mrs. Bayard and Mr. Carter, Mr. Bayard's secretary, were the only representatives of the United States embassy present.

LYNCHING EXPECTED

Because of the Killing of Two People in Texas.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 18.—There is a prospect of a lynching taking place in Duvall county, south of here. Two weeks ago Benito Ortiz and Yidefonso Garza, two well known and highly respected citizens of that county, were shot and killed from ambush. Circumstances pointed to Valentine Colonza as being the murderer, and he has just been arrested and has made full confession of his guilt. The murdered men had numerous friends and they are making strong threats of lynching Colonza. The latter is in jail. He was one of the leaders in the Garza revolution of three and four years ago, and was out on bail to answer to the charge of violating the United States neutrality laws, in the federal court.

SHIVELY FOR GOVERNOR.

Democrats of Northern Indiana to Urge His Nomination.

LIGONIER Ind., May 18.—Northern Indiana will present the name of D. F. Shively for the democratic nomination for governor. The positive withdrawal of Mayor Taggart, of Indianapolis, has resulted in a movement to nominate Mr. Shively. He represented the Thirteenth district in congress four terms, declining a renomination for a fifth term. He is now practicing law. The movement to bring Mr. Shively into the contest has met with the indorsement of the party managers in all sections of the state and his candidacy will be vigorously pushed.

CURFEW LAW IN EFFECT.

Naperville Children Obeyed the Statute to the Letter.

NAPERVILLE, Ill., May 18.—The curfew bell ordinance, passed by the city council several weeks ago, requiring every girl or boy under fifteen years of age in this city to be off the streets between the hours of 9 p m. and 6 a. m., unless accompanied by parents or guardians, went into effect here Saturday night and caused considerable excitement. Unlike other evenings, the streets were deserted early by the younger people, who feared arrest. No arrests were made.

Price of Coal.

PHILADELPHIA, May 18.—It is stated here on good authority that many of the coal companies that took orders at April prices and are now filling them will cancel all that are not filled by the end of the month. All dealers have been notified of this action and it has created a better demand for anthracite coal. After May 30, the new circular price is to prevail and there is talk of making a further advance of twenty-five cents a ton on July 1, to be followed by another on October 1.

Murder at Catskill.

CATSKILL, N. Y., May 18.—Joseph Caserta, a leading member of the Italian colony, was murdered last night by a fellow countryman named Pascal. The deed was committed at a christening at which there had been considerable indulgence in liquor. A quarrel arising among the men about a woman, Pascal seized a gun and shot Caserta through the back. Pascal was arrested.

If You Will Use a Little Reasoning and not be so influenced by the claim that catarrh is a blood disease, you can easily prove that catarrh is climatic Have you not the severest catarrhal attacks during winter and spring, and have you but little evidence of catarrh during the summer? Yes. Well, this proves it is a climatic disorder, inflaming the membrane of the nasal passages. It is a waste of time and money to invest in blood remedies. The proper treatment is a local application, and the most prompt to cure is that popular remedy, Ely's Cream Balm

AFFAIRS OF THE RAIL.

General Manager Ramsey Prepares for an Inspection Tour.

Pittsburg Shopmen Will Picnic at Rome City—Supt. F. S. O'Rourke Goes to Virginia.

The local Wabash officials have been advised of a contemplated inspection of the lines and properties of the company by General Manager Ramsey and other high officials and heads of departments. This will be Mr. Ramsey's first official trip over the entire system The date has not yet been set but the inspection will take place in May.

THE SHOPMEN'S EXCURSION.

The Pittsburg shopmen's annual picnic will be held at Rome City this year, instead of at Eagle Lake, as heretofore. The change meets the approval of all the shopmen, who never liked Eagle Lake as a picnic ground. The date for the excursion has not been fully decided upon, but it will probably be June 20 This morning James A Graham, Enoch Cox, J. H. Fry, E. O. Bradway and Hugh Hogan, who compose a committee, went to Rome City to look over the grounds, preparatory to making a program for the day's sport. The coming excursion will undoubtedly be as enjoyable and largely attended as any of its predecessors.

MINOR NOTES.

The Lake Erie and Western has posted notices to the effect that after July 1 all local tickets must be used on the day purchased. A number of roads have of late adopted this rule. It is done that tickets may be used in the month issued. Tickets not used on the day sold will be redeemed.

One of the first retrenchment moves by Receiver Jarvis, of the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis road, was to lop off a few official heads, of which there was a preponderence on that line. Among the deposed officials were General Road Master Barton, Purchasing Agent Harry Matters and E. M. Hibberd.

John Gorol, an employe of the Wabash freight house, has gone to the company's hospital with a sore thumb. April 7 the member was crushed by a heavy box falling upon it. The wound healed apparently and Gorol resumed his place in the freight house May 4 A few days ago the thumb became very sore and it is now thought it will have to be amputated.

The walls of the new Wabash hospital at Peru have been erected and the work of putting on the roof has been taken up. The site of the building is an elevation, which overlooks the beautiful Wabash valley and to a lover of natural scenery the view from the hospital is most charming, particularly at this season of the year. The dimensions and general appearance of the hospital were described in these columns some time ago.

HE CHANGED THE FLAVOR

The Scheme Worked For a Time, but Discovery Came at Last.

Hezekiah Keets and Abraham Lincoln Links belonged to the first colored society of New Orleans. Their occupation as trusted servants in Mason's big gambling house made them the leaders in the Four Eleven Forty-four Hundred of the city. As men skilled in high finance, they were intrusted with the responsible office of taking up the pennies on Sundays in the most exclusive African church in town.

Mr. Keets was ambitious. Mr. Links only needed a hint to adopt the same virtue.

"Abe," said the former, "let'sh start a 'stablishment o' our own."

"G'long, Zeke," retorted A. L. L. "How's yo' gwine ter buck 'gainst der boss?"

"Ain't no buckin 'gainst him. We won't 'low no one but culled gemmens. No white pusson can get in. Heaps o' money in it."

"War's yo' gwine git yo' layout?"

"Reckon dat's easy. On'y have faro in our 'stablishment. Boss done gib dozen pack ole cards."

"But whar yo' gwine git yo' chips? Dey cost mighty sight, dem ivories."

Mr. Hezekiah Keets was stumped. He fell into a brown, a blackish brown, study. He thought ponderously. Presently his face was a sunburst.

"Glory! I'ze got it!" he screamed in delight. "We buy dose big peppermint drops—big as a quartah dollah. Dey'll do. Can't tell 'em from de reg'lar chips."

So the gambling house of Keets & Links was founded. Prosperity smiled upon the firm. The cellar in Duprez street became the Mecca of darkydom.

One Sunday night in February the place was crowded. The company's coffers were dammed with a flood of coppers. It was a big winning night. Toward midnight a fat black gentleman from New York, a stranger, entered the cellar and took a place at the table. Mr. Links was dealing the cards. Mr. Keets, spying around behind the crowd, was much impressed by the newcomer and kept winking at his partner and pointing his thumb toward the stranger.

Obedient to Mr. Keets' suggestion, the dealer dealt particularly inconvenient cards to the man from New York. The latter, however, soon loomed up as a mystery. He had bought 16 cents' worth of chips to begin with; had lost nine times steady running, yet the stack of peppermints in front of him grew taller and bulkier.

And Abraham Lincoln kept on dealing out unaccommodating cards to the fat stranger.

Messrs. Keets and Links looked at each other in dismay. The latter so lost control of his wits that the cards came out as they liked, and the man from New York won his first hand of the evening. He had bet two chips on it. In a flash his pile was augmented by more peppermints than were in the bank when it opened play that evening. The circumstance seemed singular to Hezekiah Keets.

But A. Lincoln Links went on dealing.

Leaning against a door, Mr. Keets plunged into a profound pool of thought. He remained there for quite two minutes, and then he emerged with a look of intense astuteness on his countenance.

He moved slowly behind the players until he was directly back of the New Yorker's chair. Then he closed his eyes and set his nose in motion. The organ proved an alert detective. Hezekiah had triumphed.

"Gemmen," he shrieked, thumping the table violently.

The players looked at him in amazement.

"Gemmen," continued Mr. Keets, "I strongly s'picion there are a mishon'ble pusson 'mong us. This yer bank knows its own chips. This yer bank's chips is all one flavor, and, gemmen," in a voice of great solemnity, "I 'clare ter gracious dar's sassafras in dis Yankee nigger's pile."

The stout party from New York left the cellar impetuously. Nobody followed him, for his abandoned property was worth more to the assembled company than the evanescent delights of a razor scrap.—New York World.

IS YOUR DIGESTION POOR?

A Sample and Full Information Concerning the New Discovery for Dyspepsia Sent Free to Any Address.

A great deal of interest has been excited recently in the medical profession by the discovery of a new preparation, which has made many remarkable cures in cases of dyspepsia and indigestion.

This remedy is not a secret patent medicine, but is a scientific combination of pure pepsin and bismuth and fruit salts, pleasant to the taste, in tablet form, and sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Dr. Erskine who tested the tablets in many cases with marked success, states that they act entirely on the food taken into the stomach digesting it perfectly, no matter how weak the stomach may be; they have no action on the bowels and do not physic, being purely and simply a cure for dyspepsia and nothing else.

All physicians recommend them as being the safest, most sensible, most effective stomach remedy on the market.

No dieting or change of habits are required; eat all the wholesome food you care for and take a tablet at each meal, the food will be thoroughly digested, the body nourished, the stomach rested; that's the whole secret of curing indigestion and the whole secret of the success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets; the reason why they have taken the place of after-dinner pills, "stomach bitters," "laxatives" and "tonics."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cts. per package, or he will order them for you if you ask him, as all druggists sell them.

A small sample package of the tablets will be sent free to any address if you will write to the Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. Also circulars and testimonials.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—For Indiana—Local rains tonight and Tuesday; cooler in extreme southern portions; variable winds.

NEWS NOTES.

W. H. Watt has gone to New York for a few days.

The Delta Sigma Nu was entertained Saturday by Frank Davis.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harber, of Liberty street—a son.

Mrs. J. Weil, of the Wayne hotel, is entertaining Mrs. Schlessinger, of Chicago.

The engagement of Charles J. Bulger and Miss Alah M. Heller is announced.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Cy Losc—a son. The happy father is foreman of the Journal job room.

On Monday night of next week the Philharmonic society will hold its annual election of officers.

S. N. Knoeder is minus a ten dollar bill. He thinks it was abstracted from his pocket by a stranger who brushed against him.

S. C. Lumbard spent Sunday at Rome City.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Ellison are visiting in Lagrange.

The regular meeting of the Relief union was held this afternoon.

Frank Beaver is making arrangements for a picnic in the near future.

J. McNaught, of Toronto, Canada, is the guest of Miss Ida Bartlett, of Washington boulevard.

The run which the Triangle Cycling club was to have taken Saturday evening was postponed on account of the weather.

Miss Clara Gocke will shortly leave for Denver, Col., to visit for two months with her brother, H. J. Gocke, who resides in that city.

Peter Kline, an old resident of this city, who makes his home with his son-in-law, Thomas Dyer, 273 West Jefferson street, is seriously ill from the effects of a cancer.

An ice cream social and entertainment was given by the Soldiers', Sons' and Citizens' club at their rooms, in the Arcade, Saturday night. It was attended by a large crowd.

Willie Schrader, an east end lad, went fishing Saturday and during the day got a fish hook through his thumb. Dr. F. J. McEvoy, at Moellering's drug store, removed the hook.

Building permits have been taken out as follows: J. G. Seabold, house on lot No. 121, north side addition, to cost $1,100; E. F. and M. Clausmeier, barn on lot 19, Taber's addition, to cost $100.

George F. Felts has sold his house on Allen street to Michael O'Brien. The residence is now occupied by Dr. L. P. Drayer. The sale was accomplished through the Lumbard real estate agency.

Mrs. DeGroff Nelson and daughter, Miss Eva, will leave this week for Colorado Springs, to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Walker, of Chicago, who have a summer cottage at that place.

A young lady bicyclist who was riding her wheel without the required headlight was run into by a carriage on Clay street, near Wayne street, Saturday night, and her wheel was demolished. It does not pay to forget the light.

The First Presbyterian Sunday school will run an excursion to Warsaw on Saturday of this week. Fare for the round trip is $1; children, fifty cents. Tickets for sale by the children of the Sunday school and at Seavy's hardware store.

The wild flower social given by the First Presbyterian church Saturday evening by the C. E. society, was a very pleasant affair. The High School Glee club sang several songs, which were enjoyed by all. Ice cream and cake were served.

Dr. George Thain will go to Cincinnati this week and will read a paper before the Hamilton County Medical society upon the topic, "Cancer; Its Causes and Treatment." The meeting of the society will be held on Wednesday and Thursday.

The new lecture rooms of the Wayne street M. E. church are now complete and work is in progress on the audience room. The public services are held in the lecture rooms, which have a large seating capacity. The two services yesterday were largely attended.

One drunk, W. S. Merrifield, was all that demanded the attention of Mayor Scherer in police court this morning. Merrifield was found in an alley near the police station last Saturday afternoon by Officer Hines so drunk that he had to be carried to the station. The mayor sent him to jail for eleven days.

The populists of Allen county meet at Labor hall, next Thursday night, to take steps toward organizing the party throughout the county for the campaign. George Rhine, the chairman of the Twelfth district, has advices from all the other counties comprising the district, showing that all are now organized with the exception of Allen.

One day last week, near Hoagland, while out driving with young ladies, M. Schookman and P. Smithley, two well known young men of that part of the county, indulged in a race which terminated with the upsetting of Mr. Schookman's buggy. The three occupants were thrown out, but none of them were injured. His horse ran away and was not recovered until the next day.

The reconstructed Sunday school rooms of the North Side Baptist Mission were dedicated yesterday afternoon with interesting services. Rev. T. E. Covington opened the exercises with prayer and the reading of the scriptures, and the sermon was preached by Rev. L. L. Henson. The building is all paid for and yesterday $104 were raised to pay the future incidental expenses. The school, under the superintendency of Thomas Potter, is in a prosperous condition.

Work on the electric line to Swift's park is progressing nicely just now. The grading is nearly all done, and there has been about six miles of iron laid. Track laying is in progress in three places and being pushed as fast as possible. At the park the pavilion has been placed under roof and scores of carpenters are at work. M. S. Robison, of the Consolidated railway company, said to THE SENTINEL that he expected to run cars to the park by the 1st of June, or not later than the 10th. During the session of the Northern Indiana Editorial association in this city next month Mr. Robison says he intends to take all the newspaper people on an excursion to the park.

Dr. J. H. Adams has gone to Cleveland, Ohio.

C. F. Dutcher, of Dayton, was in the city Saturday.

Adam L Beck, of Huntington, was in the city today.

Miss Mattie Gresham, of No. 229 East Lewis street, is very sick.

Albert Jauch, of East Washington street, is suffering with tonsilitis.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koop, of No. 53 Buchanan street—a son.

Miss Jennie Walter, of No. 146 East Lewis street, has returned from a visit to Andrews.

The Fort Wayne Choral society will hold a rehearsal at the Y. M. C. A. hall this evening.

L. P. Sharp has sold his Lakeside grocery to Frank Tilberry. The latter is now in charge.

A. J. Yeu went to Wabash this morning to organize a temple of the Order of Pericleans.

On Tuesday evening the Misses Anna Hanker and Gussie Hauck give a dancing party to a few of their friends.

Miss Bertha Haines, of West Jefferson street, leaves this week for Ann Arbor, Mich., to spend the summer.

The Daily News unfortunately "pied" its forms Saturday evening and the paper was short its usual quantity of news.

Mrs. A. B. Smith, nee Miss Susie Bartholomew, is visiting her parents on Wallace street. She resides in Akron, Ohio.

The Wayne True Blues will be inspected by Major Bowman, of Waterloo, at their armory next Thursday evening.

Judge Robert Lowry, Hon. J. M. Barrett, Hon. T. E. Ellison and Christian Boseker went to Wabash this morning.

Captain Rosenthal, of the Triangle Cycling club, suffered a severe injury to his knee a day or two ago by falling from his wheel.

Reformed Emanuel's church will give an ice cream lawn social, corner Bass street and Fairfield avenue, on Thursday evening.

The Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western depot and freight house at Baldwin, Ohio, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground at 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

While passing through the Nickel Plate yards last Saturday evening, Mrs. Frank Murphy, wife of the Nickel Plate engineer, was struck by an engine and thrown a considerable distance, but escaped without injury.

A horse with a light buggy ran away at noon today on Harrison street. It turned west on Wayne street and was captured near Webster. No damage was done. The name of the owner of the horse was not learned.

Mr. Jacob Auer, of St. Joseph township, the mother of Mrs. Henry Bullerman, celebrated her sixty-seventh birthday anniversary yesterday. About fifty guests were at her home, among whom were her eight children.

The second section of the Ladies' society of the Westminster church will give a G. W. I. I. supper from 5:30 to 7:30 Friday evening at the church parlors. This will be followed by an entertainment, after which ice cream and cake will be served.

There was a flood of no small dimensions in the clothing store of Golden & Patterson, yesterday, and it resulted in some damage being done. An elevator cylinder overflowed and water was scattered over a pile of goods which happened to be too near. The goods were soaked, but the loss will not be much, as the pile was not large. Fortunately the trouble was located shortly after the leak occurred.

At the close of the services at the St. Paul M. E church yesterday morning five persons were baptized and received into the church. In the afternoon ten children were received into the Junior Epworth league. In the evening the church was crowded. W. F. McCaughey and W. F. Baxter, of the City Y. M. C. A., delivered impressive addresses, and H E Eldridge, Clinton Wilson and Miss Mamie Smith greatly assisted in the singing.

The Triangle Cycling club will hold an important meeting this evening for the purpose of arranging for the ten mile road race, which is to take place Saturday, May 30, and also to decide on a club uniform. Matters appertaining to the state meet of the L. A. W., which will be held here July 4, will also be discussed. The club now has twenty-eight league members and will probably conclude to apply for club membership in the league tomorrow night.

The Hartford City News says the Fort Wayne Gas company realizes $400 a day from its oil product in that field. The company for several months has been pushing its oil interests in those portions where the gas pressure has so decreased as to make the production unprofitable. An employe of the company stated that the income of this company exceeded $400 a day, or at the rate of more than $145 000 a year. The Salamonie owns thousands of acres of good oil territory and henceforth its oil business will be enlarged. While it is not disposed to drill for oil in good gas territory, it means to protect its lines, and push its oil business in the oil territory.

BIG DROP.

$5,000 Worth of Pianos Must Go at Some Price.

Yes, the early hot weather has caused so many to take their summer's outing much earlier than usual that our large stock of pianos, ordered for the spring trade, will have to be carried over until fall, but this will not do, as I received word from the factory that our stock on hand May 1 was over $11,000, and must be reduced to $6 000, as that amount is sufficient to carry through the dull hot season.

And now, in order to reduce this stock to $6,000 and all in one week, also right in the dullest piano season of the year, will naturally compel us to make some very low prices, of which the following is a sample:

One large fancy Aerion Piano, new and warranted five years, retail price, $298; sale price, $155.

One large $325 Kimball Piano, slightly used, $210

One large $500 Chickering, $275.

One large $375 Baldwin, $195.

One large $350 Hains, $175

One large $500 Hallet & Davis, $218.

Organs, new, $35 00, $45 00, $55 00. Remember this sale only lasts one week, when all goods will be raised to their old prices. All Kimball pianos at factory cost, regardless of freight or drayage, during this sale only.

Bret Harte's new story and Jerome K. Jerome's latest piece of fiction have both been secured by the Ladies' Home Journal for immediate publication. Jerome's story is called "Reginald Blake; Financier and Cad," and sketches an incident in fashionable London society. Bret Harte calls his story "The Indiscretion of Elsbeth," and pictures the romance of a young American who falls in love with a German princess, masquerading as a dairy maid.

A SAD TALE!

Or How They Socked it to Him.

"Man wants but little here below,
But wants that little long."
At least 'tis true, as all do know,
If the fit of his socks is wrong.
But of all the wrongs he has to bear
And with christian fortitude meet,
In magnitude none can compare
With that of sock discolored feet.
If at night he removes his socks
And finds his feet an inky hue,
His language strong, his good wife shocks
And turns the atmosphere to blue.
His one ambition all else mocks,
And this passion fairly thrills him,
He thinks of him who sold the socks
And his own joy when he kills him.
This hitherto quite upright man,
—A creature now thirsting for gore—
And all this trouble first began
By his mistake about a store.
For if he had but come to us
And bought the kind we always sell,
The wrecked life of this poor cuss
We would not now have had to tell.

The moral of this sad, sad tale
Is plainly seen by every eye—
When you buy socks, you should not fail
To see the mark—"Hermsdorf's Dye."

Capt. Gen. Weyler Reconsiders a Rash Threat.

Consul General Williams Wins a Point and the Lives of Some Cuban Sympathizers are Saved.

HAVANA, May 18—The action of Consul General Williams in protesting against the methods of trial of the prisoners of the American schooner, Competitor, adopted by the Spanish authorities, is worth more than a passing mention. Before the court martial closed, Consul General Williams' letter of protest was read. The representative of the United States quoted the treaties existing between the United States and Spain, and denied the right of the latter to try American citizens and others sailing under the American flag by other than civil hands, adding that even in the latter case they must be judged by ordinary and not by drum head military and naval courts and be permitted to employ legal counsel and present witnesses in evidence A note by the judge advocate general, which had also been indorsed by Admiral Navarro, the highest naval officer of Spain in Cuba, ruling Consul General Williams' protest as without good ground and out of order, was also read and noted. Within three hours after the court martial closed its session, at a special meeting in the afternoon, its members sent to Admiral Navarro a sealed verdict, which was immediately opened and approved by the naval chief. The sentences of all five prisoners to death, in accordance with the verdict, were signed at once and preparations were made to have the men shot. Receiving no satisfactory response from the admiral, nor even an invitation to attend the proceedings, neither Consul General Williams nor any attachee of his office was present at the court martial, nor was he allowed to see the prisoners until after the trial had closed Naturally he laid the whole case before the state department at Washington by wire early and received instructions as prompt as energetic. When these arrived he went directly to the palace, where a stormy interview with Captain General Weyler occurred. The captain general told Consul General Williams that if the men had been convicted, as the latter supposed, they would most certainly be shot at sunrise the following morning, despite any protest the United States might make. "If you shoot them," said Mr. Williams, "my government instructs me to close its consulate here and demand my passports, and shall most certainly hold you and your government responsible should these prisoners be executed before our protest be given due consideration."

When Consul General Williams bowed himself out of the captain general's presence and drove back to his office the excitement that followed at the palace became almost indescribable. The president and judges of the supreme civil tribunal of the island, the chairman of the leading conservative parties and the managing director of the Spanish bank were called into consultation by Captain General Weyler and Admiral Navarro. The majority of these personages advised the authorities to suspend the execution pending higher instructions from Madrid.

General Weyler said no, that if the men were not executed he would resign. He so telegraphed the Spanish ministry, it is reported In the meantime it appears the United States was, through Minister Taylor, also bringing pressure to bear at Madrid. Orders came from Spain to suspend all proceedings and directing the captain general and admiral to transmit all documents in the case to Madrid for consideration there by the supreme military and naval council and cabinet. General Weyler, it is said, also received a message telling him to await a more opportune moment to give up his command, as for diplomatic reasons the government could not afford at this crisis to have him suddenly resign. Consul General Williams had won. The transfer of the case to Madrid will give the prisoners at least a month or six weeks' respite.

OFFICIALS IN A STEW.

Several of Them to Stand Trial for Crooked Work in Office.

ANDERSON, Ind., May 18.—Official circles are getting the most violent shaking up in their history in this section. Justice of the Peace Sherman Makepeace and Constable Carter were arrested last night charged with extortion in collecting fees and other irregularities. Following close upon the conviction of Attorneys Dean for irregularities in practice, the case instituted against Attorney Herman Wilkie for disbarment and the proceedings against Prosecuting Attorney Scanlan, Attorney Call and Deputy Prosecutor Ross for accepting bribes, this movement has created much alarm among the lawyers and officeholders.

ADDITIONAL PEST IN INDIANA.

Wabash County Wheat and Rye Have a New Enemy.

WABASH, Ind., May 18—In addition to the rust and the Hessian fly, which have been destroying the wheat and rye in Wabash county, the farmers of this locality have a new enemy to contend with. Ex-County Commissioner J. D. Starbuck, of Lagro township, has found thousands of woolly worms about an inch and a half in length and totally unlike any other pest he has ever seen destroying his corn crop. They appeared to come from a strip of woods and, invading a fine field of corn, ate four acres of the grain off just above the ground. Mr. Starbuck says they are in evidence in countless numbers on his place and farms adjacent and his neighbors are much alarmed by their appearance.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

The Supreme Court Reverses the Trademark Case.

Proposition to Change Custom House Rules—McCall Immigration Bill—Other News.

WASHINGTON, May 18—In the supreme court of the United States today Justice White handed down the opinion of the court in the case of the Singer Sewing Machine trade mark. The judgment of the court below, the circuit court for the northern district of Illinois, which was against Singer, was reversed. The supreme court held, however, that others using the name "Singer" as a trade mark should show the source of manufacture.

PROPOSED CUSTOM RULE CHANGES.

The house committee on ways and means today decided to report favorably the bill to permit customs officials to deliver packages not exceeding $500 in value to express companies and other inland carriers under bond after appraisal on the wharfs. Jewelry and precious stones are excepted. It also authorized Mr. Evans, of Kentucky, to call up in the house under suspension of the rules the bill to permit the bottling of spirits under bond in distilleries.

REFUSED TO INVESTIGATE ELECTIONS.

By a vote of 6 to 41 the senate today refused to take up a resolution to investigate the alleged election frauds in Alabama in the Kolb-Oates election contest.

IMMIGRATION BILL.

The house committee on rules today decided to bring in a special order for the consideration of the McCall immigration bill and amendments today and tomorrow. The McCall bill provides an educational test and is substantially similar to the Lodge bill. The Stone bill, which provides for consular inspection, will be offered as a substitute. The rules committee also decided to give the committee on labor some time this week for bills reported from that committee.

SEPARATE CARS FOR NEGROES.

The supreme court of the United States, at Washington, decided today, in what is known as the "Jim Crow" case of Plessy vs. Ferguson, that the statute of the state of Louisiana requiring railroad companies to supply separate coaches for white and colored persons is constitutional, affirming the decision of the court below. Justice Brown delivered the opinion. Justice Harlan dissented.

GEORGIA SUNDAY LAW CONSTITUTIONAL.

Justice Harlan today delivered the opinion of the supreme court in the case of Pennington vs. the state of Georgia, involving the constitutionality of the state laws prohibiting the running of freight cars in Georgia on Sunday. The opinion held the law to be valid.

FATAL EFFECTS

Resulting From the Famous Anti-Diphtheretic Serum.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—A profound sensation has been caused among medical men of Germany and France through the fatal effects attending the administration of the famous anti-diphtheretic serum in the case of a child of an eminent Berlin physician.

A servant in the physician's household showing signs of diphtheria, the doctor, to prevent his child from contracting the disease administered an injection of the serum and the child died in a few minutes. United States Commercial Agent Moore, at Weimar, has made the incident the subject of a special report to the state department, in which, after telling of the various theories put forth by the medical authorities to account for the fatal action of the serum, he declares that the child died from nervous shock, although it has been concluded that the injection of the serum into a healthy person for prevention is a dangerous practice.

NEW INVENTION IN BICYCLES.

Claim Made That Pneumatic Tires Will Be Superceded.

LONDON, May 17—A new bicycle invention which is looked upon as likely to supercede pneumatic tires is shortly to be presented to the public. It is vaguely described as a "frame bicycle pneumatically slung, while the wheels are solid tired." Thus it is claimed there is no danger of puncture, the resistance is perfect, there is an entire absence of vibration and the wheels can be produced at half the cost of the present machines.

Catholic Knights Form a Regiment.

ANDERSON, Ind., May 18—The uniformed Catholic Knights of America commanderies in the gas belt are forming a regiment. This includes the commanderies at Anderson, Muncie, Alexandria and Elwood. The Anderson commandery will be divided into two companies. In doing this, however, the city would have to forfeit the honor of having the largest single commandery in the world.

Gold Shipment.

NEW YORK, May 18—The engagement of $1,100,000 for export to Germany tomorrow accelerated the movement at 10:25 and general recessions were made, extending to 1 per cent. in Chicago gas.

SEVEN KILLED.

Frightful Results of a Cyclone

Which Swept Through Central Kansas.

Several Towns Wrecked and Debris Strewn Everywhere—List of the Victims.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 18—A cyclone struck the north part of the town of Sabetha, a small place northeast of near near the Nebraska line, late last evening, destroying the Grand Island Railroad station and elevator and twenty dwellings. Twenty five persons were injured, several of whom will die. Twenty families were rendered homeless, losing everything they had.

FRANKFORT, Kan., May 18—At 5 o'clock last evening a terrific cyclone swept down upon this town from the southwest. Everything in the north and west ends of the town was wrecked. Sixty buildings were razed to the ground. Some of the best residences in the town were blown to pieces. Reports coming in from the country, where heavy damage has been done, will materially swell the loss. Many persons are reported painfully injured, but so far as known no one has been killed. Many head of horses, cattle and other stock have been killed. The Methodist and Christian churches were demolished, and the Presbyterian church was wrecked.

BENTON, Kan., May 18.—A cyclone passed over the northwest corner of this county yesterday morning at about 1 o'clock. At Elva it tore down the house of Anderson Jones and killed the entire family. The dead are:

Anderson Jones, aged eighty.
Mrs. Jones, his wife, aged fifty-five.
Son, aged seventeen.
Daughter, aged twelve.
Daughter, aged ten.

KANSAS CITY, May 18—News of the loss of life and destruction of property by yesterday's cyclone in Kansas, is slow in coming in, caused by the crippled condition of the telegraph wires.

What has been received makes it plain that previous estimates of the damage done were none too high, and in fact, may be added to when communication is completely reopened. Fully half a dozen towns were struck by the twister and the known dead is seven. The injured number fully thirty, many of whom it is feared are fatally hurt.

Reserve, a village on the Missouri Pacific railroad, in Brown county, seems to have felt the brunt of the storm. But five houses are said to have been left standing there. The list of killed at Reserve are as follows:

D. W. Terhune, aged sixty.
Ralph Sweeney, nine years.
Viola Phillips, four years.
Mrs. John Rynder.

The injured are: John Rynder, fatally; blind son, leg broken. William Mellions, father of Mrs. Dureson, internally injured. Mrs. D. W. Terhune and daughter, internally hurt. Sherman Phillips, bruised and cut. Perry Young and wife, cut and hurt. George Kennedy, cut and severely bruised. Ed. Phillips, arm broken. Harry Thompson and wife. Frank Jones, jaw broken. Mrs. Sweeney and three children, hurts and bruises. Rev. Mr. Parker wife and daughter, internally hurt. William Margrave, face and head bruised.

The town of Reserve is almost wiped out of existence. Hardly a house remains standing and wreckage is strewn everywhere. The white populace is homeless and great confusion prevails. Forty-four buildings in Reserve alone were razed. The barns and sheds of all the farmers living in the track of the storm were destroyed. The destruction came upon the villagers with scarcely no warning. The cloud was shaped like an umbrella and came from the southwest. The people fled precipitately to their cyclone cellars, but many never reached them. The confusion was indescribable. Darkness added to the crash of falling timbers, the cries of the hurt, and the almost deafening hiss and roar of the wind, struck terror to the hearts of all. After the storm had passed, those fortunate enough to have escaped the ravages set about helping the victims. All night long they searched for the wounded and missing and lanterns could be seen darting here and there. The injured are being well cared for. Fifty thousand dollars would not replace the damage at Reserve alone. The few houses standing are wrecked and broken

JUDGE HOLT'S WILL.

The Noted Case Again Brought Up.

Generals Grant's and Sherman's Signatures Pronounced Genuine—A Notable Array of Counsel.

WASHINGTON, May 18—The trial of the noted Holt will case began today. It has been pending almost a year. The question at issue is the genuineness of a tattered, alleged will of former Judge Advocate General Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, which was found in the mails of the register of wills here last year. Judge Holt, who died in August, 1894, was supposed to have died intestate and the validity of the alleged will, whose mysterious appearance created widespread interest, has been vigorously contested A notable array of counsel was present. The beneficiaries under the alleged will are Miss Josephine Holt Throckmorton and Miss Lizzie Hynes, of Kentucky, between whom the estate was equally divided. Luke Develin, a war department clerk, was named as executor and for these appeared ex Congressman B. J. Butterworth, J. Darlington and Blair Lee. The counsel for the heirs at law are ex-Congressman Jere Wilson, ex-Assistant Attorney General Worthington and Attorneys Heald, of Washington, and Peston, of Louisville, Ky. The signatures of General Sherman and Mrs. W. T. Sherman, which are on the will, were identified as genuine by Senator Sherman, of Ohio, and Col. Fred Grant, of New York, testified to the genuineness of the signatures of the late President Grant.

NO CHOICE YET.

The Tenth Ballot for Bishop Unavailing.

Cranston Leads, With McCabe a Close Second—The Excitement Is Intense.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 18—Bishop Newman presided at today's session of the M. E general conference. As soon as the reading of the journal was completed a motion was made to take the ninth ballot for bishop. Dr. Buckley at once opposed this on the ground that many of the ministers who went out of the city to preach on Sunday had not returned, and the voting was made a special order for 10 o'clock.

In the meantime the routine proceedings began with a continuation of the consideration of the report of the committee on itinerancy. A brief interruption was made to introduce Dr. J. C. Morris and A. B Perkins, of Texas, fraternal delegates from the M E church south. It was Dr. Morris, concerning whom an unfortunate complication arose at the time of his first visit and he has returned in order that the conference may redeem itself. The gentleman was shown scant courtesy on the occasion of his previous appearance before the conference a day or two after it had met here. Both gentlemen were received this morning with applause.

The time until 10 o'clock was fully occupied in a discussion of the report of the committee on itinerancy and at that hour the ninth ballot was taken. Nearly an hour was consumed in counting the vote but immediately after the recess, the tellers entered the room. The report of the Bible society was being read and the customary applause broke out, but Bishop Newman promptly suppressed it. The ninth ballot was then announced. The whole number of votes cast was 560, making 334 necessary to a choice

The result of the leaders was as follows:

C. C. McCabe, 238; Earl Cranston, 236; H. A. Buttz, 218; J. W. Hamilton, 159; T. B. Neeley, 59; J. W. E. Bowen, 17 No choice.

The result of the ballot proved to be a great surprise. The loss for McCabe was 32 Cranston 27, Buttz 62, Bowen 20, while the gain for Hamilton was 59 and for Neeley 40.

This bore out the rumor of a break to Neeley and Hamilton and the result of the tenth ballot was awaited with intense interest.

The vote was taken when Dr. Tetter, of Iowa, moved to defer all further balloting for bishop until the next general conference in 1900. No second was given and a great laugh was caused and the tellers retired to count the vote.

Bishop Newman at this point presented Rev. W. A. Atkinson, fraternal delegate from the British Wesleyan conference, who said a few words of farewell. Bishop Newman's response was a gem and called forth most prolonged applause. The report of the committee on revivals was then read. It showed no changes other than miner matters of routine were recommended.

Before the tenth and last ballot of the morning was announced, rumors of a Cranston-Hamilton combination began to gain circulation. This union of the east and west seemed to be a certainty when the result was announced. It was a gain for Hamilton of 21; for Cranston of 23; for Neeley of 24, and a loss of to McCabe of 15; to Bowen of 5, and to Buttz of 25. The combined vote was going to Cranston while so far as the east was concerned it divided between Neely and Hamilton. Should the next ballot show the Cranston-Hamilton combination to be non effective a trial of the Cranston-Neely combination will probably be made as the friends of Cranston are determined he shall win if possible The eleventh ballot was taken and the conference recessed until 2:30 o'clock when the result will be announced

And Four Million Feet of Logs Escape.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 18—The boom at the Peyton, Kimball and Barber saw mill at Superior broke last evening letting out about 4,000,000 feet of logs. About 2,000,000 feet of the logs which broke away from the Nemadji have drifted out into the lake and will probably be lost. Fears are expressed in regard to the safety of forty million feet of logs in booms at the mouth of the Brule river, which is now unprecedentedly high.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND.

The Catholic Prelate Financially Embarassed.

Vast Fortune of $1,500,000 Nearly Exhausted by Unlucky Deals and He is a Poor Man.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 18.—Archbishop Ireland three years ago was worth $1,500,000. Today he is practically a poor man. Through real estate speculation he made his vast fortune; through the same channel he has lost it. The fortune which the archbishop created and which has since taken wings was a private one. In no way will the church be affected directly by the archbishop's turn in fortune, but indirectly it means a loss to the church of a magnificent cathedral, a well-endowed school or both The archbishop is an unselfish man and it has been his life dream to be able to erect with his own funds and present to the church a cathedral equal to if not greater than any in the United States. Up to the time of the panic in 1893 everything appeared favorable to a realization of his dream. Since then his hopes have received a severe shock, with the impairment of his fortunes, yet if there is anything to be saved of the archbishop's estate it will be saved.

Three months ago the archbishop awoke to the fact that he was very seriously embarrassed. He owned large tracts of property in St Paul and minor holdings outside of the city, but the property was unimproved and brought in no income. He had borrowed large sums of money with which to carry on his deals and to meet the interest and principal of different mortgages which were fast becoming due he is now compelled to surrender large amounts of property to satisfy clamoring creditors.

The archbishop admitted that he had been caught on a large amount of real estate at the end of the boom and that he had bought property at figures which no one else would pay. But he said he did so through his unbounded faith in the future of St. Paul real estate. He added that his affairs had been in bad shape, but that with the aid of his friends he had been able to make a number of settlements and hoped that his financial condition would soon improve.

MURDER BY TORTURE.

An Indian Chief in Prison on That Charge.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 18—In jail at Juneau, waiting trial on the charge of murder, is Chief Ye Teetlech, the tyee of the Hoonah Indians, a small tribe of some hundred members, occupying Chicakikoff island, about 100 miles southerly from Juneau. The offense with which the old chief is charged is the murder by torture of his nephew, whom he accused of witchcraft. The chief had a disease affecting his right leg, which had gradually eaten the greater part away. He dreamed his nephew had bewitched him and on the strength of this he proceeded to inflict punishment for the crime. The victim's knees were bent close back and in this position he was bound tightly to a tree. An iron band, a quarter of an inch thick, was then placed around his face, sinking into the nose and covering the eyes. This was also made fast to the tree, so that he was unable to move his head in any direction. He was left in this position to starve to death. He lived five days. He was twenty years of age.

MURDER CASE.

Evidence Accumulating Against Blanther at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18—Evidence is accumulating against J. E. Blanther, suspected of the murder of Mrs. Pholpens Langfeldt, on Friday night Through the unwilling aid of his besom companion, George Dodge, and the voluntary statement of J. H. Lynch, a fellow roomer, Blanthers movement has been in part traced. It is believed that the murder of Mrs. Langfeldt took place before 11 o'clock on Friday night. Between 11 o'clock and midnight Blanther entered the bath room of the residence where he roomed to wash his hands. When J. H. Lynch started to enter the room Blanther hastily departed without saying a word, and as Lynch stepped to the wash basin he was surprised to see that it was reddened as though with blood. It is said that the police have recovered from a pawn shop the diamond ring which was stolen from Mrs. Langfeldt by the murderer. A description of Blanther has been telegraphed all over the country.

GUARDIAN WEDS HIS AGED WARD

"Uncle Joe" Smith Aged Eighty, Takes a Wife.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 18.—"Uncle Joe" Smith, aged eighty years, was married yesterday to Mrs Louisa Lane, who is the only older resident of Honey Creek township than himself. Several weeks ago she was declared to be incapable of managing her large estate and "Uncle Joe" was appointed her guardian.

Death in a Fire.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 18—A close search of the ruins of the Markham house block, which was swept clean by fire last night, revealed this morning the charred remains of a human body, which proved to be that of W. T. Zachary, a negro driver, who was asleep in a carriage in Milam & Patterson's livery stable, which was one of the first buildings destroyed. So far as known no other lives were lost.

Demonstration at a Funeral.

PRETORIA, May 18—There was a great demonstration today upon the occasion of the funeral of F. L. Grey, the reform committeeman who committed suicide by cutting his throat while in jail while laboring under melancholia induced by his prosecution. Barney Barnato rode in the first carriage. The streets were packed with people. Many wreaths were sent by Grey's fellow prisoners.

LEGAL MENTION.

News as Found Around the Court House.

The Commissioners Have Given Ferris a License to Run the Root Jack Saloon, Near Lindenwood.

The county commissioners have given Ferris, the saloonkeeper, a license to continue his "boot jack" saloon, near Lindenwood cemetery.

The trial of the cases against William Block and Jacob Hellinger have been set in the circuit court for June 17.

Theodore Robbins and Mary Bond, Daniel M. Hayer and Catherine C. Quinn have been licensed to wed.

The county commissioners are kept busy with an examination of the plans for the new court house. They are excellent in their design and details and none of them give the cost over $500,000 The commissioners require that a bond shall be filed that the building can be constructed within 10 per cent. of the estimated cost.

The Nintz-Ward provoke case is on trial before Justice France.

An affidavit has been filed against a party named Young for provoke. Justice Bullerman will hear the case.

LAW OF THE ROAD.

The old trouble between bicyclers and teamsters, relative to the rights on the highway, has begun to arise again. Each party will do well to remember that the other is entitled to half the road. This matter has been tested several times in the court and every time with the same result. The teamster is obliged to give half the road to the bicycle, and on the other hand a drove of sweating "scorchers" have no right to expect a teamster to turn out in the ditch to make way for a wild road race. The law says to divide the road and turn to the right. Cyclers should remember also since the wheel is recognized by law as a vehicle they have no more right on the sidewalk than has a man on horseback or in a carriage.

SPECIAL VERDICT LAW.

Attorneys of Indianapolis, who practice in the circuit and superior courts, are growing more and more dissatisfied with the special verdict law, and it is not at all unlikely that a powerful legal influence will be brought to bear on the next legislature, looking toward the repeal of the law. Many of the attorneys say the law confuses juries, for in answering the great number of interrogatories propounded to them they are apt to lose sight of important points. It is said that some of the corporation attorneys are dissatisfied with the law, notwithstanding the fact that corporations lobbied in its interest. The Indianapolis Bar association has taken up the question of repealing the law and at the last meeting of the association a committee was appointed to take steps in this direction. All of the county judges are in favor of having the law repealed.

FOREST FIRES

Still Raging in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Fire Spreads From the Woods to the Farm Buildings and the Loss is Considerable.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., May 18—Forest fires are still raging in many places throughout this county. Word was received from McGee's Mills this morning that five houses and a church have been destroyed. At Montgomery the fires are burning fiercely and many houses and barns are in danger. The Barrett hotel at Barrett, four miles from this place, was burned last night and the town is entirely surrounded by a big woods, which is all ablaze. At Lick Run, Mitchell & Co.'s logs, which were lying in the run, were eaten up by the flames. In Goshen township, Archer Spencer's barn was burned last night, and other barns and many houses throughout the township are in danger.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., May 18—Forest fires are raging in Tucker county. Yesterday hundreds of men ineffectually fought the fires which are burning more fiercely this morning than last night. Lumber men estimate the loss at $500,000. The Middle Fork portion of the county is completely wiped out. The adjoining forests are now burning with indications that the entire county will be devastated unless a rain prevents. Weather dry and warm with high winds. Farmers have left their homes to seek refuge in larger towns. So far no deaths are reported.

HOSTLER KILLED.

Stabbed in the Head With a Pitchfork.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 18.—George Bradley, one of the Bradley brothers, a well known turfman, had a row with Griff White, a stable hand, which resulted in Bradley jabbing a pitchfork into White's head, from which he died Bradley was arrested.

Stove House Falls.

LANSING, Mich., May 18—E. Bement & Sons, extensive manufacturers of stoves and agricultural implements, will this afternoon file two trust deeds to secure claims amounting to $300,000, about equally divided between local and outside creditors

WAS NOT EXPECTED.

Death of Charles Roeger on Sunday Afternoon.

Mrs. Rebecca Davis, of No. 5 Randolph Street, Dead—Miss Dollie Brunce's Death.

Charles Roeger died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at his home, No 26 West Main street, from hernia. He had been a sufferer for a long time, but his death yesterday was unexpected. He had been engaged in the saloon busine s at the above place for a long time. The deceased was a member of the Fort Wayne Saengerbund, the German Military society and the Allen County Licensed Liquor Dealers' association, all of which organizations will turn out at the funeral, which will be held at the residence at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Beach conducting the services. Mr. Roeger leaves a wife, three sons and one daughter. He was fifty years o' age.

DAVIS.

Mrs. Rebecca L. Davis, wife of S. C. Davis, died at the family residence, No. 5 Randolph street, yesterday, aged fifty-four years. Death was due to paralysis, from which she had been a sufferer for eight or nine years. The funeral will be held at the residence at 9:30 Tuesday morning.

BRUNCE.

Dollie, the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brunce, died yesterday at the family residence, No. 156 Greely street, from palpitation of the heart. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon, at 1:30, at the house, and at 2 o'clock at the Christian church, Rev. P. J. Rice conducting the services.

PEARSON.

The one-day-old child of Nicholas Pearson, of St. Joe township, died this morning and was buried this afternoon.

UNIQUE SERVICE

Held by Young Ladies at the Christian Church.

The service at the Christian church last evening was conducted by the young ladies of the church and was unique and interesting in its character. The church had been beautifully decorated with pot and cut flowers and presented a very neat appearance. The music was furnished by a chorus of lady voices and four young ladies served as ushers. The hymns were announced, the scriptures read and the prayer offered by young ladies. "A Beautiful Woman" was the subject of a short sermon, delivered by the pastor. He said in part: "Beauty is a quality of the soul as well as of the face and form. Indeed there is no real beauty of the face unless it reveals the inner qualities of gentleness and intelligence." He selected Ruth the Moabiliste maiden as his model of a beautiful woman and said, "she was beautiful in the manner of her speech, in her unfaltering friendship and in her devotion to duty." In conclusion he said, 'young ladies you can not buy beauty although you will find plenty of places where they profess to have it for sale. Fine clothes, a manufactured complexion or costly diamonds will not hide an unlovely nature. No woman is truely beautiful unless she has been adorned with the beauty of holiness." A similar service will be held next Sunday evening.

MARSHALL COMINCAVISH

Pleasantly Remembered by His K. of P. Friends.

Last Saturday was the fortieth anniversary of the birth of Marshall Cominicavish, the master of finance of the Phoenix lodge, Knights of Pythias, and in the evening a large number of knights visited his home on Spy Run avenue to congratulate him on this auspicous event in his life. Mr. and Mrs. Cominicavish received their guests in a graceful manner and entertained them most royally. Not long after their arrival Mr. James M. Robinson called Marshall to the parlors and in a speech, such as Jim only can make, presented him with a costly K. of P. charm as a mark of esteem of his friends in the lodge. Mr. Cominicavish, although surprised, managed to thank his donors as best his embarassment would allow and the balance of the evening was spent in a social way. Mrs. Cominicavish served the knights with refreshments and all present enjoyed themselves most thoroughly. Mr. Cominicavish is the foreman of the winding department at the Fort Wayne electric works and has many friends.

FIFTY THOUSAND.

That is the Population of the City of Fort Wayne.

The new city directory, which has just been issued by R. L. Polk & Co., gives Fort Wayne a population of 50,000 souls. In the directory there are 16,250 names, and the common ratio of multiplication which is used in figuring out the population gives the above figure. This is a material increase over the population of last year, as a comparison of the old and new directories will show. Fort Wayne is on the forward march in respect to size and business and it is the best city in the state today, barring Indianapolis, only on account of its larger size.

Gave Up the Ghost.

Atlanta Constitution.

The Alabama Telephone Construction company, known as the Harrison Telephone exchange, of Selma, has collapsed. The exchange was built just eighteen months ago to compete with the Southern Bell Telephone exchange. The poles and wires were sold yesterday at a nominal price, said to be enough to cover the outstanding indebtedness. The original investment proved a total loss

THE SUNDAY LAW.

Two Saloon Men Arrested for Violations.

Gus Erickson and William Miller Were Rounded Up by Policeman Hines Yesterday.

Officer Hines went out yesterday and gathered in a couple of saloons who were violating the law. In the afternoon he passed the restaurant on the corner of Wayne and Calhoun streets, and saw two men passing from the restaurant into Gus Jackson's saloon, which is in the rear, with a door on Wayne street. The men both had bicycles which they were taking in with them. Hines demanded an explanation from the restaurant man, also from Jackson, but the explanation was not satisfactory, so he filed an affidavit against Jackson for allowing persons other than his own family in his saloon on Sunday. The trial was set for 3 o'clock this afternoon before Mayor Scherer.

Hines also went out Spy Run avenue and found William Miller's saloon, near the St. Joe bridge, with the screens closed so tight that a person with an X ray machine could not have looked into the place. Hines also filed an affidavit against Miller and his trial was set for this afternoon.

BOTH WERE FINED.

Late this afternoon the cases of Jackson and Miller were heard in police court and Mayor Scherer fined both parties $10 and costs, amounting to $19.50 each.

NEW POLICEMEN

Will be Appointed by the Board Tonight.

Over a Hundred Applicants Want to Get Positions on the Force—Meeting Tonight.

The board of public safety will meet tonight and it is reasonably certain that a number of changes in the police force will be made. The board had an informal meeting this afternoon for the purpose of talking the matter over, but no appointments will be made before this evening. There are over 100 applicants for positions upon the police force, some wanting to be captain, others lieutenant, others sergeant and still more for patrolmen. It is likely that the board has its mind made up as to who will be appointed, but nothing definite has been heard.

BOARD OF HEALTH

Meets to Elect a City Bacteriologist.

Indications are That Dr. L. P. Drayer Will be His Own Successor in That Position.

The board of health met this forenoon for the purpose of electing a city bacteriologist. The matter was thoroughly discussed but no action was taken this morning. Another meeting is to be held this afternoon when the matter will be disposed of. It seemed to be the opinion of the members of the board that the present city bacteriologist, Dr. L. P. Drayer, would be chosen to succeed himself. There were several other candidates.

INDIANA LITERARY CLUBS.

Mrs. Jennie Ray Ormsby on the Program.

The program is out for the state convention of the Indiana Union of Literary clubs, which is to be held at Connersville, June 3, 4 and 5. The committee on selecting speakers were very fortunate in securing Miss Jennie Ray Ormsby, of this city, for a paper on "Man a Perfect Whole." Mrs. Ormsby has been a teacher of physical culture and the art of expression in this city for almost four years, and her work shows that she not only understands developing the physical part of the system but the mental as well. Although she came here from the Emerson college of physical culture, the largest school of the kind in the world, its system and plan of work was little known to us. In her hands the work has grown greatly and she now has large classes not only in Fort Wayne but in several of our surrounding cities The delegates to the convention will not only be entertained by her paper but greatly benefitted if they follow her instructions. Quite a number will attend this convention from Fort Wayne.

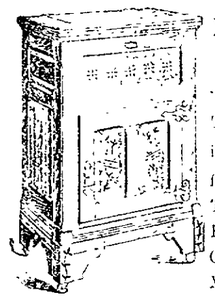

An exciting accident happened this afternoon at the Calhoun street crossing of the Nickel Plate railroad. Mrs. I. C. Hunter was driving north with her baby in a two seated carriage. A street car was standing near the track and as the horse approached it he shied to one side. One of the buggy wheels struck a post at the edge of the sidewalk, and was torn off. This upset the buggy and threw out both Mrs Hunter and her child. Mrs. Hunter fell under the carriage and persons who witnessed the accident expected to see her badly injured, but fortunately such was not the case. She escaped without injury, although she was covered with mud. The child was also unhurt, its escape from injury being almost miraculous.

THE cyclone has begun its destructive and deadly work.

THE growing crops were greatly benefited by the rains of Saturday and Sunday nights.

THE vice presidency of the United States may not be a big office in itself, but it offers a possibility for the presidency to some men to whom it is not otherwise and directly attainable.

ALL the delegates to the national republican convention have now been elected. Leaving out of the McKinley column all doubtful votes, all the votes that are contested by delegates who are unfavorable to McKinley, and he will still have enough unmistakable, unquestioned and uncontested votes to nominate him.

LAST Friday West Virginia adopted a gold and McKinley platform, while Wyoming adopted a silver and McKinley platform. As a straddler McKinley seems to be catching the national delegate votes all right.

THE strike in Milwaukee has already demonstrated the foolishness of the strike system. The strikers are out of place, out of pocket, and hundreds of families that once had plenty and were happy are now miserable and hungry.

HAS the long-dreamed-of flying machine come at last? No less an authority than Professor Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, says that Professor Langley, of the Smithsonian institute, has actually produced a machine that will fly. The names of the two gentlemen are sufficient guarantee that, contrary to most reports of flying machine inventions, this is not a "fake." But even scientific experts make mistakes.

DURING the encampment at South Bend last week an old veteran was run down by a wheelman and died in a short time from the effects of his injuries. It is reported that the accident was the result of carelessness on the part of the cyclist and great indignation is expressed over the accident. There are a few wheelmen who are a trifle imprudent in the manipulation of their machines, but a number of accidents would be avoided if pedestrians would remember that it is the wheelman's place to do the dodging and continue their course without reference to the wheel. The average cyclist understands how to avoid a collision and will do so if left to himself.

Foreign Crops.

The foreign statistics gathered by the agricultural department show the crop conditions throughout the year. The summary is as follows:

Great Britain—The crop outlook everywhere is good and promises a harvest about two weeks earlier than usual. This would diminish the imports for the remainder of the current cereal year by about 5 000,000 bushel.

France—With normal weather until harvest the wheat crop will more than suffice for home requirements. A surplus for export is confidently predicted by French agricultural journals and statisticians, some expecting that it will amount to 40,000,000 bushels. This quantity would affect prices, and especially if the French government should pay a bounty on exports.

Austria-Hungary—The weather has been favorable and the crops promise well.

Roumania—Cold weather in April retarded the crops but the outlook is generally promising.

Russia—Excellent prospects of a crop above the average in quantity and quality are generally reported. The unfavorable March weather in the south is found to have done serious damage. Spring sowings have been completed under good conditions.

Hold Over Senators.

Chairman Holt of the democratic state committee has issued a call for a meeting May 27. One of the matters to be considered is the action the party will take in regard to the twenty-five hold-over senators.

The committee at first agreed as soon as the first decision of the supreme court in the apportionment case was handed down to not contest the seats of the hold overs if the republicans would agree not to contest the validity of the law of 1885. This proposition was refused by the republicans, who promptly proceeded to bring suit. They were beaten in the courts. The proposition of the democrats is annulled and the party is now free to do as it sees fit.

Governor Matthews still clings to his view that the hold-overs should not be contested. He said the districts were the same with the single exception of Senator McCord's district, to which Brown county has since been added. As to this district Governor Matthews does not say what should be done. If the seat is not contested Brown county is disfranchised, as it is represented by a senator as to whose election it had nothing to do. In fact, this is practically true in all of the districts represented by hold-overs, the old 1885 combinations having been reinstated since the law under which the hold-overs were elected was operative. The other districts are the same, but the counties composing them had no voice in the election of the present incumbents.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skilful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

Wanted, Reciprocity.

While our reciprocity treaties were in operation live American beeves were shipped to Europe in enormous numbers. They brought in England $2 a hundredweight more than the quarters of dressed beef did. English feeders bought the American cattle, fattened them and in every case put them upon the market as "prime English beef." Since the abrogation of the reciprocity treaties the export of live cattle from this country to Great Britain alone has fallen off over 73,000 a year. Great Britain now proposes to make meat dealers mark all beef distinctly, specifying which is home grown and which is foreign. Germany excludes our live cattle altogether, and all dressed meat that has not been inspected by our government. The authorities at Freiburg, Germany, even went so far as to require dealers to place upon American meats placards declaring that these meats were only superficially inspected and no guarantee as to their wholesomeness could be given, and the United States has put up with this indignity. France excludes American cattle altogether and will only admit dressed pork when it has been inspected and certified. Denmark and Belgium have similar regulations to those of Germany, while Russia will admit no American pork at all.

Now, every one of these nations sends millions of dollars' worth of imports into the United States annually. While American meat growers are being ruined, foreign merchants and manufacturers are growing rich off our money. We owe it to our rural population to inaugurate reciprocity once more. If the nations named will not negotiate reciprocity treaties, then let us have retaliation.

A Great Show.

The most splendid pageant of the closing years of this century will be the coronation of young Nicholas II as the czar of all the Russias. The meaning of this phrase is that all the provinces belonging to the czar's empire are called Russias of one grade and another, and as there is something like a hundred of them, the expression "czar of all the Russias" implies more than even the title of "empress of the Indies."

Hundreds, if not thousands, of Americans will be in the ancient city of Moscow to witness the event of May 26. They are said to be well liked in Russia because they are so rich. Probably the Russians do not know how many poor Americans there are at home.

The Kremlin at Moscow is really a hill in the center of the town. It is heavily walled and guarded and entered through gates in the walls. Upon the top of the hill is a little church and in that church all the czars of Russia have been crowned for the past 350 years. In the little church will be present at the coronation, besides the royalties, representatives of the nations, from Li Hung Chang to modest Mr. Breckinridge, the American minister. The heads of all the provinces subject to Russia will also be there in their rainbow hued native robes. The coronation ceremonies will last 24 hours. May 18 Nicholas II will be 28 years old. If he has any strength of character of his own, it has not yet been discovered.

Many excellent persons who under no circumstances would permit a copy of The Fireside Companion to come into their families nevertheless owe a greater debt than they are aware of to its founder, the late George Munro. When he, a poor young man, got a place at very small pay in the establishment of the American News company, he did not calmly anchor himself there for life. His knowledge of the wide difference between the cost of making books and the high price at which they sell set him thinking out a plan for providing all the people with cheap and good literature. He matured the plan, and it made him a millionaire. Not only that, but it gave the people of this country many good books in cheap form. To Munro's Seaside Library thousands of intelligent persons owe a debt of genuine gratitude. The novels Munro brought out in the Seaside collection were many of them of the best class. Mr. Munro was a publisher, a philanthropist and many other things, but his memory will shine brightest of all as that of the man who brought down the price of books throughout the whole country and made it possible for poor people to enjoy good reading.

A new way of raising church funds has been devised in the west which threatens to supersede even the strawberry festival. The church goes into the farming business. Some 50 acres of land are set apart, and the brethren bestow their services gratuitously in cultivating it. Whether this pays better than for each man to raise the products on his own farm, then sell them and give the money to the church, is not stated. Probably the brethren get more fun out of tilling the church farm. At Wayne, Neb., the attempt will be made to lift a church debt by growing and selling grain and garden vegetables.

The servant girl will be more of a terror than ever now that she has shown herself fully capable of organizing a union and engineering a successful strike. The $15 a month striking maids of all work in Superior, Wis., will obtain from their employers in future as fully equal to the pay of an average farm laborer in many parts of the country. It is better, considering the fact that the housework girl gets all her living, than the average public school teacher gets in New York city.

The faculty, students and alumni of Antioch college, which Horace Mann founded, issued a neat little memorial book in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of his birth, May 4. In the front of the volume are quoted the following words from Horace Mann's last baccalaureate address to his students in June, 1859: "I beseech you to treasure up in your hearts these, my parting words: Be ashamed to die until you have won some victory for humanity."

A cousin of the Duke of Montrose, a nobleman in his own right and a lineal descendant of Robert Bruce, Sir Robert James Stuart Graham, is at present a humble clerk in Brooklyn, and out of employment at that, living in a tenement house.

COLTS DEFEAT SAGINAW.

From Jackson the colts went to Saginaw, where they defeated that team yesterday, the score being 10 to 3. Knell pitched for Fort Wayne and surprised the lumbermen by striking out eleven men. This is the greatest number of strikeouts made in any game in the Inter-state league thus far this season. Two Fort Wayne men were struck out by the Saginaw pitcher. Fort Wayne plays at Saginaw today and tomorrow.

JACKSON DEFEATS TOLEDO

Yesterday Jackson played at Toledo a game which was scheduled for September. Jackson won by a score of 13 to 6. The Jackson club is not going to be in the tail end of the procession by any means. They are a good team and Leigh Lynch will see to it that they give the best of them a close hustle. As soon as Jackson gets a long stretch of games on their own home grounds then look out for them.

NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES.

Cincinnati 2, Brooklyn 1; Boston 5, Pittsburg 4; Cleveland 8, New York 2; Washington 7, St. Louis 1; Baltimore 8; Chicago 7.

NOTES FROM THE GAME.

Poor Toledo. She is on the toboggan.

Earl Sumner, who was loaned by Fort Wayne to Saginaw, is doing fine work for the lumbermen. He takes a crack at the ball at every opportunity, and his batting has already won games for them.

Portland, Ind., has written to Captain Tebeau asking for a pitcher for their semi professional club. Tebeau has been thinking of farming Robb out to them, subject to recall at any time if he should be needed.

Thad Troy, of the Washington, Pa., team banged the ball over the fence for a home run at New Castle a few days ago, and Millionsire McKeown, the manager of the club, presented him with a new $15 suit of clothes.

Wheeling is already boasting of what they will do with the Fort Wayne colts when they get to that place. The Nailers are talking as if they expect to take three straight games. It's dimes to doughnuts that we will not give them more than one game.

The rivalry between the clubs in the eastern division of the Inter-State league is something frightful to behold. They all seem to have it in for each other in such a way that nothing but scalping knives and meat axes can ever settle the question of supremacy.

AMONG THE AMATEURS.

The East Main street base ball team defeated the Lakeside team Saturday by a score of 23 to 15

The Pennsylvania Juniors Saturday defeated the Royal Blues by a score of 8 to 5. The game was played on the jail flats.

The long talked of game between the Blakes and Flannigans occurred at Centlivre's park. The Flannigans had sixteen runs and the Blakes had thirty-three in the ninth inning and no men out. The game was called on account of darkness. The feature of the game was the pitching of "Spotsy" for the Flannigans.

BASE BALL

At Lakeside park Thursday, Saturday and Sunday. Toledo vs. Fort Wayne. Games called at 3:30.

WRECK OFF VANCOUVER

The Sad Fate of the Cadzow Forest.

Indians Find a Life Buoy Which Bears the Name of the Craft and Tells of Her Fate.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 18.—At last some definite news has been received as to the fate of the British bark Cadzow Forest, which has so long been missing, and which has been given up as lost. From news received yesterday it appears that the fears that the vessel was wrecked were only too well founded. It will be remembered that the vessel was last seen off the mouth of the Columbia river, having come up from San Francisco to load grain for Portland. Owing to the storm, she was blown out to sea and never again heard of. The little missionary steamer, Glad Tidings, belonging to the Methodist church, arrived in port from a cruise among the Indian missionary stations last night. While at China Hat, on the west coast of Vancouver island, Captain Allcock reports that some Indians showed him a life buoy bearing the name Cadzow Forest, which they had picked up the day before on the beach. The Indians also say that a large amount of wreckage and lumber was also strewn along the beach.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

Sound Money Democrats Have Little Hope of Controlling It.

WASHINGTON, D C, May 18.—Sound money democrats have about abandoned hope of controlling the Chicago convention. It looks now as if they set a bad example in Michigan by applying the unit rule, and that the free silver men in many of the southern states will insist upon giving the sound money men a dose of their own medicine. There is scarcely a southern state where the democrats did not expect to have divided delegations with the minority for sound money. There is no southern state in which the gold men expected to control the majority of the delegates, but they had hoped to make a fair showing in Georgia, North Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, Tennessee and Texas. With the application of the unit rule, it is the opinion here, they cannot hope to control a vote in a single southern state.

They fear that the free silver men in Kentucky will predominate, and apply the unit rule, thus depriving Mr. Carlisle of the indorsement in his own state for sound money. Senator Lindsay believes that the free silver men will control. He is so confident of it that he told General St. Clair, of West Virginia, a few day ago, that he had decided not to be a candidate for delegate to the Chicago convention. Much depends upon Illinois and Indiana. The chances are that Illinois will elect a free silver delegation.

Mills Destroyed.

TERRON, Mexico, May 18.—The large flouring mills and grain elevators of the Allianza Manufacturing company, situated here, was destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $150,000. The mills had recently been equipped with new machinery and were the largest in northern Mexico. The amount of insurance is small. There was a large stock of grain consumed.

ROYAL AFFAIR.

The Princess of Wales Holds a Reception.

Mrs. Calvin S. Brice and Mrs. Douglass Grant Among the Distinguished Guests.

LONDON, May 18—The princess of Wales, assisted by her daughters and Prince Charles, of Denmark, held the largest drawing room reception of the season at Buckingham palace today, in behalf of the queen. The weather was warm and sultry, but great crowds lined the hall. The marquis of Salisbury and the commander-in-chief, Lord Wolseley, as well as all the members of the diplomatic corps, were among those present. The Americans presented were the duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, Mrs. Calvin S. Brice and her two daughters and Mrs. Douglas Grant, of New York. Mrs. Henry Asquith, formerly Miss Margot Tennant, was also presented Thos. F. Bayard, United States ambassador, and Mrs. Bayard and Mr. Carter, Mr. Bayard's secretary, were the only representatives of the United States embassy present.

LYNCHING EXPECTED

Because of the Killing of Two People in Texas.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 18—There is a prospect of a lynching taking place in Duvall county, south of here. Two weeks ago Benito Ortiz and Yide'onso Garza, two well known and highly respected citizens of that county, were shot and killed from ambush. Circumstances pointed to Valentine Colonza as being the murderer, and he has just been arrested and has made full confession of his guilt. The murdered men had numerous friends and they are making strong threats of lynching Colonza. The latter is in jail. He was one of the leaders in the Garza revolution of three and four years ago, and was out on bail to answer to the charge of violating the United States neutrality laws, in the federal court.

SHIVELY FOR GOVERNOR.

Democrats of Northern Indiana to Urge His Nomination.

LIGONIER Ind., May 18—Northern Indiana will present the name of D. F. Shively for the democratic nomination for governor The positive withdrawal of Mayor Taggart, of Indianapolis, has resulted in a movement to nominate Mr. Shively. He represented the Thirteenth district in congress four terms, declining a renomination for a fifth term. He is now practicing law. The movement to bring Mr. Shively into the contest has met with the indorsement of the party managers in all sections of the state and his candidacy will be vigorously pushed.

CURFEW LAW IN EFFECT.

Naperville Children Obeyed the Statute to the Letter.

NAPERVILLE, Ill, May 18.—The curfew bell ordinance, passed by the city council several weeks ago, requiring every girl or boy under fifteen years of age in this city to be off the streets between the hours of 9 p m and 6 a. m., unless accompanied by parents or guardians, went into effect here Saturday night and caused considerable excitement. Unlike other evenings, the streets were deserted early by the younger people, who feared arrest. No arrests were made.

Price of Coal.

PHILADELPHIA, May 18.—It is stated here on good authority that many of the coal companies that took orders at April prices and are now filling them will cancel all that are not filled by the end of the month. All dealers have been notified of this action and it has created a better demand for anthracite coal. After May 30, the new circular price is to prevail and there is talk of making a further advance of twenty-five cents a ton on July 1, to be followed by another on October 1.

Murder at Catskill.

CATSKILL, N. Y., May 18—Joseph Caserta, a leading member of the Italian colony, was murdered last night by a fellow countryman named Pascal. The deed was committed at a christening at which there had been considerable indulgence in liquor. A quarrel arising among the men about a woman, Pascal seized a gun and shot Caserta through the back. Pascal was arrested

AFFAIRS OF THE RAIL.

General Manager Ramsey Prepares for an Inspection Tour.

Pittsburg Shopmen Will Picnic at Rome City—Supt. P. S. O'Rourke Goes to Virginia.

The local Wabash officials have been advised of a contemplated inspection of the lines and properties of the company by General Manager Ramsey and other high officials and heads of departments. This will be Mr. Ramsey's first official trip over the entire system The date has not yet been set but the inspection will take place in May.

THE SHOPMEN'S EXCURSION.

The Pittsburg shopmen's annual picnic will be held at Rome City this year, instead of at Eagle Lake, as heretofore. The change meets the approval of all the shopmen, who never liked Eagle Lake as a picnic ground. The date for the excursion has not been fully decided upon, but it will probably be June 20 This morning James A Graham, Enoch Cox, J. H. Fry, E. O. Bradway and Hugh Hogan, who compose a committee, went to Rome City to look over the grounds, preparatory to making a program for the day's sport. The coming excursion will undoubtedly be as enjoyable and largely attended as any of its predecessors.

MINOR NOTES.

Supt. C. D. Law went to Chicago on business for the railway this morning.

Nickel Plate Conductor George Harsh is taking a few days recreation.

J. Cleary, a brakeman on one of the east Nickel Plate local trains, has resigned

A hot box under the engine delayed Pittsburg mail train No. 6 thirty minutes this morning.

After a few days absence Conductor J. M. Wells again has charge of a Nickel Plate freight train.

H. Schortemeyer, one of the veteran car inspectors of the Wabash, is off duty on account of sickness.

John Hughes, night operator at the Nickel Plate yards, has recovered from an illness and resumed work.

J. M. Cook, a freight brakeman, has been transferred from this city to Bellevue, to work on local freight.

R J. Develin, a Wabash fireman, who had been visiting in the city, returned to Andrews Saturday evening.

Train Dispatcher M. E Tubble, of the Pittsburg, and son, spent Sabbath with his parents in Forest, Ohio.

It is proposed to change Labor day in Ohio from the first Monday in September to the last Saturday in August.

Conductor Fred Deahl, who had a foot injured several days ago, resumed his duties on the Nickel Plate today.

George Fosler, Wabash yard conductor, has returned to his duties, after a week's visit with friends at Toledo.

Fifteen hundred employes of the tube works, at McKeesport, Pa, have joined the Iron and Steel Workers association.

The ticket office of the Big Four road at Jonesboro, was burglarized, Friday night and a large number of tickets were stolen.

Huntington Democrat: "Blacksmith Ed Haley and wife are entertaining as their guest her sister, Mrs Frank Richards, of Fort Wayne."

Prof. Thomas Duncan, of the electric works, will address the Caledonian society this evening on the subject of "The Roentgen Rays."

Engineer Al Becker, of the Nickel Plate, is recovering after a long illness. He was operated upon at St. Joseph hospital some time ago.

Operator Bird, who was working here during the illness of one of the regular operators on the Nickel Plate, has gone to Argos, Ind., to fill a vacancy.

Switchman George Olmstead, of the Nickel Plate, was off duty yesterday for the purpose of entertaining some visitors who spent Sunday with him.

E. Bedeon, fireman on a Nickel Plate yard engine, has resumed work after a couple days' rest. Fireman Allen, of the same road, is now enjoying a rest.

The Chesapeake and Ohio road will build a five span, steel bridge over the Ohio river at Ironton. The structure and its approaches will be 4,000 feet long.

D. R. Hurst recently general yardmaster of the Lake Erie and Western at Lima, has taken charge as trainmaster of the Joliet division of the Chicago and Alton.

T. J. Hennessey, formerly traveling engineer of the Michigan Central railroad, has been appointed division master mechanic of the road, with headquarters at Jackson, Mich.

Brakeman Moran, who was off duty a few days to look after some private business, took his run out on the Nickel Plate today. George Driver, also a brakeman, is now taking a lay off.

The Joint Traffic association managers have appointed a committee to bring the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton and the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago into the Joint Traffic association.

Indianapolis Journal: "To an outsider it looks like discrimination for the Pennsylvania line and the Vandalia to carry bicycles free and charge fifty cents for carrying the baby carriage of a lady traveler."

In twenty-four hours ending Monday at 6 a m, the official report shows that the Panhandle delivered at Pittsburg forty five sections of east bound freights and brought west from Pittsburg twenty-seven sections.

A. S. Dunham, general manager of the Ohio Southern, has resigned and the office has been abolished. I. H. Burgoon has been appointed general superintendent. He is now with the Utah Central, at Salt Lake

The new engine which the Bass works built for the Consolidated Street Railway company, will be ready for operation next week. It will furnish power for the Swift park branch of the system.

Superintendent P. S. O'Rourke, of the Grand Rapids road, left this morning for the mountains of Virginia, hoping that a sojourn of three or four weeks in a high altitude will result in restoring his health.

The Manhattan Elevated railroad in New York, is planning to put another track above its present track and top the entire structure with a down town and an up town cycle path. The paths are to be nine feet wide and the toll three cents each way.

Freight agents anticipate a considerable traffic in corn during the next three or four weeks. Farmers in the corn belt have finished planting for the 1896 crop and are now preparing to dispose of the surplus crop of 1895, which is as large as usual.

Chief Dispatcher W. H. Tigar, of the Pittsburg, left for Savannah, Ga., this morning, to attend the supreme lodge meeting of the Royal Arcanum. At Cincinnati Mr. Tigar expects to meet a number of delegates from other states and accompany them south.

According to the Railway Age, Chicago is now the terminal point for thirty-three lines of railway, representing twenty-four distinct systems, with a thirty-fourth line directly connected by lake ferry. There are also three elevated passenger railways with two more under construction.

The Lake Erie and Western has posted notices to the effect that after July 1 all local tickets must be used on the day purchased. A number of roads have of late adopted this rule. It is done that tickets may be used in the month issued. Tickets not used on the day sold will be redeemed.

One of the first retrenchment moves by Receiver Jarvis, of the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis road, was to lop off a few official heads, of which there was a preponderence on that line. Among the deposed officials were General Road Master Barton, Purchasing Agent Harry Matters and E. M. Hibberd.

John Gorol, an employe of the Wabash freight house, has gone to the company's hospital with a sore thumb. April 7 the member was crushed by a heavy box falling upon it. The wound healed apparently and Gorol resumed his place in the freight house May 4 A few days ago the thumb became very sore and it is now thought it will have to be amputated.

The walls of the new Wabash hospital at Peru have been erected and the work of putting on the roof has been taken up. The site of the building is an elevation, which overlooks the beautiful Wabash valley and to a lover of natural scenery the view from the hospital is most charming, particularly at this season of the year. The dimensions and general appearance of the hospital were described in these columns some time ago.

HE CHANGED THE FLAVOR

The Scheme Worked For a Time, but Discovery Came at Last.

Hezekiah Keets and Abraham Lincoln Links belonged to the first colored society of New Orleans. Their occupation as trusted servants in Mason's big gambling house made them the leaders in the Four Eleven Forty-four Hundred of the city. As men skilled in high finance, they were intrusted with the responsible office of taking up the pennies on Sundays in the most exclusive African church in town.

Mr. Keets was ambitious. Mr. Links only needed a hint to adopt the same virtue.

"Abe," said the former, "let'sh start a 'stablishment o' our own."

"G'long, Zeke," retorted A. L. L. "How's yo' gwine ter buck 'gainst der boss?"

"Ain't no buckin 'gainst him. We won't 'low no one but culled gemmens. No white passon can get in. Heaps o' money in it."

"War's yo' gwine git yo' layout?"

"Reckon dat's easy. On'y have faro in our 'stablishment. Boss done gib dozen pack ole cards."

"But whar yo' gwine git yo' chips? Dey cost mighty sight, dem ivories."

Mr. Hezekiah Keets was stumped. He fell into a brown, a blackish brown, study. He thought ponderously. Presently his face was a sunburst.

"Glory! I'ze got it!" he screamed in delight. "We buy dose big peppermint drops—big as a quartah dollah. Dey'll do. Can't tell 'em from de reg'lar chips."

So the gambling house of Keets & Links was founded. Prosperity smiled upon the firm. The cellar in Duprez street became the Mecca of darkydom.

One Sunday night in February the place was crowded. The company's coffers were dammed with a flood of coppers. It was a big winning night. Toward midnight a fat black gentleman from New York, a stranger, entered the cellar and took a place at the table. Mr. Links was dealing the cards. Mr. Keets, spying around behind the crowd, was much impressed by the newcomer and kept winking at his partner and pointing his thumb toward the stranger.

Obedient to Mr. Keets' suggestion, the dealer dealt particularly inconvenient cards to the man from New York. The latter, however, soon loomed up as a mystery. He had bought 16 cents' worth of chips to begin with; had lost nine times steady running, yet the stack of peppermints in front of him grew taller and bulkier.

And Abraham Lincoln kept on dealing out unaccommodating cards to the fat stranger.

Messrs. Keets and Links looked at each other in dismay. The latter so lost control of his wits that the cards came out as they liked, and the man from New York won his first hand of the evening. He had bet two chips on it. In a flash his pile was augmented by more peppermints than were in the bank when it opened play that evening. The circumstance seemed singular to Hezekiah Keets.

But A. Lincoln Links went on dealing.

Leaning against a door, Mr. Keets plunged into a profound pool of thought. He remained there for quite two minutes, and then he emerged with a look of intense astuteness on his countenance.

He moved slowly behind the players until he was directly back of the New Yorker's chair. Then he closed his eyes and set his nose in motion. The organ proved an alert detective. Hezekiah had triumphed.

"Gemmen," he shrieked, thumping the table violently.

The players looked at him in amazement.

"Gemmen," continued Mr. Keets, "I strongly s'picion there are a misbon'ble passon 'mong us. This yer bank knows its own chips. This yer bank's chips is all one flavor, and, gemmen," in a voice of great solemnity, "I 'clare ter gracious dar's sassafras in dis Yankee nigger's pile."

The stout party from New York left the cellar impetuously. Nobody followed him, for his abandoned property was worth more to the assembled company than the evanescent delights of a razor scrap.—New York World.

IS YOUR DIGESTION POOR?

A Sample and Full Information Concerning the New Discovery for Dyspepsia Sent Free to Any Address.

A great deal of interest has been excited recently in the medical profession by the discovery of a new preparation, which has made many remarkable cures in cases of dyspepsia and indigestion

This remedy is not a secret patent medicine, but is a scientific combination of pure pepsin and bismuth and fruit salts, pleasant to the taste, in tablet form, and sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Dr. Erskine who tested the tablets in many cases with marked success, states that they act entirely on the food taken into the stomach digesting it perfectly, no matter how weak the stomach may be; they have no action on the bowels and do not physic, being purely and simply a cure for dyspepsia and nothing else

All physicians recommend them as being the safest, most sensible, most effective stomach remedy on the market.

No dieting or change of habits are required; eat all the wholesome food you care for and take a tablet at each meal, the food will be thoroughly digested, the body nourished, the stomach rested; that's the whole secret of curing indigestion and the whole secret of the success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the reason why they have taken the place of after-dinner pills, "stomach bitters," "laxatives" and "tonics"

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cts per package, or he will order them for you if you ask him, as all druggists sell them

A small sample package of the tablets will be sent free to any address if you will write to the Stuart Co, Marshall, Mich Also circulars and testimonials.

The new lecture rooms of the Wayne street M. E. church are now complete and work is in progress on the audience room. The public services are held in the lecture rooms, which have a large seating capacity. The two services yesterday were largely attended.

One drunk, W. S. Merrifield, was all that demanded the attention of Mayor Scherer in police court this morning. Merrifield was found in an alley near the police station last Saturday afternoon by Officer Hines so drunk that he had to be carried to the station. The mayor sent him to jail for eleven days.

The populists of Allen county meet at labor hall, next Thursday night, to take steps toward organizing the party throughout the county for the campaign. George Rhine, the chairman of the Twelfth district, has advices from all the other counties comprising the district, showing that all are now organized with the exception of Allen.

One day last week, near Hoagland, while out driving with young ladies, M. Schoekman and P. Smithley, two well known young men of that part of the county, indulged in a race which terminated with the upsetting of Mr. Schoekman's buggy. The three occupants were thrown out, but none of them were injured. His horse ran away and was not recovered until the next day.

The reconstructed Sunday school rooms of the North Side Baptist Mission were dedicated yesterday afternoon with interesting services. Rev. T. E. Covington opened the exercises with prayer and the reading of the scriptures, and the sermon was preached by Rev. L. L. Henson. The building is all paid for and yesterday $101 were raised to pay the future incidental expenses. The school, under the superintendency of Thomas Potter, is in a prosperous condition.

Work on the electric line to Swift's park is progressing nicely just now. The grading is nearly all done, and there has been about six miles of iron laid. Track laying is in progress in three places and being pushed as fast as possible. At the park the pavilion has been placed under roof and scores of carpenters are at work. M. S. Robison, of the Consolidated railway company, said to THE SENTINEL that he expected to run cars to the park by the 1st of June, or not later than the 10th. During the session of the Northern Indiana Editorial association in this city next month Mr. Robison says he intends to take all the newspaper people on an excursion to the park.

Dr. J. H. Adams has gone to Cleveland, Ohio.

C. F. Dutcher, of Dayton, was in the city Saturday.

Adam L. Beck, of Huntington, was in the city today.

Miss Mattie Graham, of No 229 East Lewis street, is very sick.

Albert Jauch, of East Washington street, is suffering with tonsilitis.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koop, of No. 53 Buchanan street—a son.

Miss Jennie Walter, of No. 115 East Lewis street, has returned from a visit to Andrews.

The Fort Wayne Choral society will hold a rehearsal at the Y. M. C. A. hall this evening.

L. P. Sharp has sold his Lakeside grocery to Frank Tilberry. The latter is now in charge.

A. J. Yeu went to Wabash this morning to organize a temple of the Order of Pericleans.

On Tuesday evening the Misses Anna Hanker and Gussie Hauck give a dancing party to a few of their friends.

Miss Bertha Haines, of West Jefferson street, leaves this week for Ann Arbor, Mich., to spend the summer.

The Daily News unfortunately "pied" its forms Saturday evening and the paper was short its usual quantity of news.

Mrs. A. B. Smith, nee Miss Susie Bartholomew, is visiting her parents on Wallace street. She resides in Akron, Ohio.

The Wayne True Blues will be inspected by Major Bowman, of Waterloo, at their armory next Thursday evening.

Judge Robert Lowry, Hon. J. M. Barrett, Hon. T. E. Ellison and Christian Boecker went to Wabash this morning.

Captain Rosenthal, of the Triangle Cycling club, suffered a severe injury to his knee a day or two ago by falling from his wheel.

Reformed Emanuel's church will give an ice cream lawn social, corner Bass street and Fairfield avenue, on Thursday evening.

The Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western depot and freight house at Baldwin, Ohio, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground at 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

While passing through the Nickel Plate yards last Saturday evening, Mrs. Frank Murphy, wife of the Nickel Plate engineer, was struck by an engine and thrown a considerable distance, but escaped without injury.

A horse with a light buggy ran away at noon today on Harrison street. It turned west on Wayne street and was captured near Webster. No damage was done. The name of the owner of the horse was not learned.

Mr. Jacob Auer, of St. Joseph township, the mother of Mrs. Henry Bullerman, celebrated her sixty seventh birthday anniversary yesterday. About fifty guests were at her home, among whom were her eight children.

The second section of the Ladies' society of the Westminster church will give a G. W. L. I. supper from 5:30 to 7:30 Friday evening at the church parlors. This will be followed by an entertainment, after which ice cream and cake will be served.

There was a flood of no small dimensions in the clothing store of Golden & Patterson, yesterday, and it resulted in some damage being done. An elevator cylinder overflowed and water was scattered over a pile of goods which happened to be too near. The goods were soaked, but the loss will not be much, as the pile was not large. Fortunately the trouble was located shortly after the leak occurred.

At the close of the services at the St. Paul M. E. church yesterday morning five persons were baptized and received into the church. In the afternoon ten children were received into the Junior Epworth league. In the evening the church was crowded. W. F. McCaughey and W. F. Baxter, of the City Y. M. C. A., delivered impressive addresses, and H. E. Eldridge, Clinton Wilson and Miss Mamie Smith greatly assisted in the singing.

The Triangle Cycling club will hold an important meeting this evening for the purpose of arranging for the ten mile road race, which is to take place Saturday, May 30, and also to decide on a club uniform. Matters appertaining to the state meet of the L. A. W., which will be held here July 4 will also be discussed. The club now has twenty-eight league members and will probably conclude to apply for club membership in the league tomorrow night.

The Hartford City News says the Fort Wayne Gas company realizes $100 a day from its oil product in that field. The company for several months has been pushing its oil interests in those portions where the gas pressure has so decreased as to make the production unprofitable. An employe of the company stated that the income of this company exceeded $100 a day, or at the rate of more than $15,000 a year. The Salamonie owns thousands of acres of good oil territory and in accordance with its oil business will be enlarged. While it is not disposed to drill for oil in good gas territory, it means to protect its lines, as I push its oil business in the oil territory.

BIG DROP.

$5,000 Worth of Pianos Must Go at Some Price.

Yes, the early hot weather has come and so many to take their summer's outing much earlier than usual that our large stock of pianos, ordered for the spring trade, will have to be carried over until fall, but this will not do, as I received word from the factory that our stock on hand May 1 was over $11,000, and must be reduced to $6,000, as that amount is sufficient to carry through the dull hot season.

And now, in order to reduce this stock to $6,000 and all in one week, also right in the dullest piano season of the year, will naturally compel us to make some very low prices, of which the following is a sample:

One large fancy Aerion Piano, new and warranted five years, retail price, $298, sale price, $155.

One large $325 Kimball Piano, slightly used $210.

One large $500 Chickering, $275.

One large $375 Baldwin, $195.

One large $350 Hains, $175.

One large $500 Hallet & Davis, $218.

Organs, new, $35.00, $45.00, $55.00. Remember this sale only lasts one week, when all goods will be raised to their old prices. All Kimball pianos at factory cost, regardless of freight or drayage, during this sale only.

Remember the place,

Bret Harte's new story and Jerome K. Jerome's latest piece of fiction have both been secured by the Ladies' Home Journal for immediate publication. Jerome's story is called "Reginald Blake; Financier and Cad," and sketches an incident in fashionable London society. Bret Harte calls his story "The Indiscretion of Elsbeth," and pictures the romance of a young American who falls in love with a German princess, masquerading as a dairy maid.

The cyclone has begun its destructive and deadly work.

The growing crops were greatly benefited by the rains of Saturday and Sunday nights.

The vice presidency of the United States may not be a big office in itself, but it offers a possibility for the presidency to some men to whom it is not otherwise and directly attainable.

All the delegates to the national republican convention have now been elected. Leaving out of the McKinley column all doubtful votes, all the votes that are contested by delegates who are unfavorable to McKinley, and he will still have enough unmistakable, unquestioned and uncontested votes to nominate him.

Last Friday West Virginia adopted a gold and McKinley platform, while Wyoming adopted a silver and McKinley platform. As a straddler McKinley seems to be catching the national delegate votes all right.

The strike in Milwaukee has already demonstrated the foolishness of the strike system. The strikers are out of place, out of pocket, and hundreds of families that once had plenty and were happy are now miserable and hungry.

Has the long-dreamed-of flying machine come at last? No less an authority than Professor Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, says that Professor Langley, of the Smithsonian institute, has actually produced a machine that will fly. The names of the two gentlemen are sufficient guarantee that, contrary to most reports of flying machine inventions, this is not a "fake." But even scientific experts make mistakes.

During the encampment at South Bend last week an old veteran was run down by a wheelman and died in a short time from the effects of his injuries. It is reported that the accident was the result of carelessness on the part of the cyclist and great indignation is expressed over the accident. There are a few wheelmen who are a trifle imprudent in the manipulation of their machines, but a number of accidents would be avoided if pedestrians would remember that it is the wheelman's place to do the dodging and continue their course without reference to the wheel. The average cyclist understands how to avoid a collision and will do so if left to himself.

Foreign Crops.

The foreign statistics gathered by the agricultural department show the crop conditions throughout the year. The summary is as follows:

Great Britain—The crop outlook everywhere is good and promises a harvest about two weeks earlier than usual. This would diminish the imports for the remainder of the current cereal year by about 5,000,000 bushel.

France—With normal weather until harvest the wheat crop will more than suffice for home requirements. A surplus for export is confidently predicted by French agricultural journals and statisticians, some expecting that it will amount to 40,000,000 bushels. This quantity would affect prices, and especially if the French government should pay a bounty on exports.

Austria-Hungary—The weather has been favorable and the crops promise well.

Roumania—Cold weather in April retarded the crops but the outlook is generally promising.

Russia—Excellent prospects of a crop above the average in quantity and quality are generally reported. The unfavorable March weather in the south is found to have done serious damage. Spring sowings have been completed under good conditions.

Hold Over Senators.

Chairman Holt of the democratic state committee has issued a call for a meeting May 27. One of the matters to be considered is the action the party will take in regard to the twenty-five hold-over senators.

The committee at first agreed as soon as the first decision of the supreme court in the apportionment case was handed down to not contest the seats of the hold overs if the republicans would agree not to contest the validity of the law of 1885. This proposition was refused by the republicans, who promptly proceeded to bring suit. They were beaten in the courts. The proposition of the democrats is annulled and the party is now free to do as it sees fit.

Governor Matthews still clings to his view that the hold-overs should not be contested. He said the districts were the same with the single exception of Senator McCord's district, to which Brown county has since been added. As to this district Governor Matthews does not say what should be done. If the seat is not contested Brown county is disfranchised, as it is represented by a senator as to whose election it had nothing to do. In fact, this is practically true in all of the districts represented by hold overs, the old 1885 combinations having been reinstated since the law under which the hold-overs were elected was operative. The other districts are the same, but the counties composing them had no voice in the election of the present incumbents.

Wanted, Reciprocity.

While our reciprocity treaties were in operation live American beeves were shipped to Europe in enormous numbers. They brought in England $2 a hundredweight more than the quarters of dressed beef did. English feeders bought the American cattle, fattened them and in every case put them upon the market as "prime English beef." Since the abrogation of the reciprocity treaties the export of live cattle from this country to Great Britain alone has fallen off over 73,000 a year. Great Britain now proposes to make meat dealers mark all beef distinctly, specifying which is home grown and which is foreign. Germany excludes our live cattle altogether, and all dressed meat that has not been inspected by our government. The authorities at Freiburg, Germany, even went so far as to require dealers to place upon American meats placards declaring that these meats were only superficially inspected and no guarantee as to their wholesomeness could be given, and the United States has put up with this indignity. France excludes American cattle altogether and will only admit dressed pork when it has been inspected and certified. Denmark and Belgium have similar regulations to those of Germany, while Russia will admit no American pork at all.

Now, every one of these nations sends millions of dollars' worth of imports into the United States annually. While American meat growers are being ruined, foreign merchants and manufacturers are growing rich off our money. We owe it to our rural population to inaugurate reciprocity once more. If the nations named will not negotiate reciprocity treaties, then let us have retaliation.

A Great Show.

The most splendid pageant of the closing years of this century will be the coronation of young Nicholas II as the czar of all the Russias. The meaning of this phrase is that all the provinces belonging to the czar's empire are called Russias of one grade and another, and as there is something like a hundred of them, the expression "czar of all the Russias" implies more than even the title of "empress of the Indies."

Hundreds, if not thousands, of Americans will be in the ancient city of Moscow to witness the event of May 26. They are said to be well liked in Russia because they are so rich. Probably the Russians do not know how many poor Americans there are at home.

The Kremlin at Moscow is really a hill in the center of the town. It is heavily walled and guarded and entered through gates in the walls. Upon the top of the hill is a little church and in that church all the czars of Russia have been crowned for the past 350 years. In the little church will be present at the coronation, besides the royalties, representatives of the nations, from Li Hung Chang to modest Mr. Breckinridge, the American minister. The heads of all the provinces subject to Russia will also be there in their rainbow hued native robes. The coronation ceremonies will last 24 hours. May 18 Nicholas II will be 28 years old. If he has any strength of character of his own, it has not yet been discovered.

Many excellent persons who under no circumstances would permit a copy of The Fireside Companion to come into their families nevertheless owe a greater debt than they are aware of to its founder, the late George Munro. When he, a poor young man, got a place at very small pay in the establishment of the American News company, he did not calmly anchor himself there for life. His knowledge of the wide difference between the cost of making books and the high price at which they sell set him thinking out a plan for providing all the people with cheap and good literature. He matured the plan, and it made him a millionaire. Not only that, but it gave the people of this country many good books in cheap form. To Munro's Seaside Library thousands of intelligent persons owe a debt of genuine gratitude. The novels Munro brought out in the Seaside collection were many of them of the best class. Mr. Munro was a publisher, a philanthropist and many other things, but his memory will shine brightest of all as that of the man who brought down the price of books throughout the whole country and made it possible for poor people to enjoy good reading.

A new way of raising church funds has been devised in the west which threatens to supersede even the strawberry festival. The church goes into the farming business. Some 50 acres of land are set apart, and the brethren bestow their services gratuitously in cultivating it. Whether this pays better than for each man to raise the products on his own farm, then sell them and give the money to the church, is not stated. Probably the brethren get more fun out of tilling the church farm. At Wayne, Neb., the attempt will be made to lift a church debt by growing and selling grain and garden vegetables.

The servant girl will be more of a terror than ever now that she has shown herself fully capable of organizing a union and engineering a successful strike. The $15 a month striking maids of all work in Superior, Wis., will obtain from their employers in future is fully equal to the pay of an average farm laborer in many parts of the country. It is better, considering the fact that the house working girl gets all her living, than the average public school teacher gets in New York city.

The faculty, students and alumni of Antioch college, which Horace Mann founded, issued a neat little memorial book in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of his birth, May 4. In the front of the volume are quoted the following words from Horace Mann's last baccalaureate address to his students in June, 1859: "I beseech you to treasure up in your hearts these, my parting words: Be ashamed to die until you have won some victory for humanity."

A [illegible] of the [illegible] of M[illegible] a [illegible] at his own [illegible] descendant of Robert [illegible] Robert James Stuart [illegible] clerk in the [illegible] employment of [illegible] most [illegible].

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

COLTS DEFEAT SAGINAW.

From Jackson the colts went to Saginaw, where they defeated that team yesterday, the score being 10 to 3. Knell pitched for Fort Wayne and surprised the lumbermen by striking out eleven men. This is the greatest number of strikeouts made in any game in the Inter-state league thus far this season. Two Fort Wayne men were struck out by the Saginaw pitcher. Fort Wayne plays at Saginaw today and tomorrow.

JACKSON DEFEATS TOLEDO

Yesterday Jackson played at Toledo a game which was scheduled for September. Jackson won by a score of 13 to 6. The Jackson club is not going to be in the tail end of the procession by any means. They are a good team and Leigh Lynch will see to it that they give the best of them a close hustle. As soon as Jackson gets a long stretch of games on their own home grounds then look out for them.

NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES

Cincinnati 2, Brooklyn 1; Boston 5, Pittsburg 4; Cleveland 8, New York 2, Washington 7, St. Louis 1; Baltimore 8; Chicago 7.

NOTES FROM THE GAME.

Poor Toledo. She is on the toboggan.

Earl Sumner, who was loaned by Fort Wayne to Saginaw, is doing fine work for the lumbermen. He takes a crack at the ball at every opportunity, and his batting has already won games for them.

Portland, Ind., has written to Captain Tebeau asking for a pitcher for their semi professional club. Tebeau has been thinking of farming Robb out to them, subject to recall at any time if he should be needed.

Thad Troy, of the Washington, Pa., team banged the ball over the fence for a home run at New Castle a few days ago, and Millionaire McKeown, the manager of the club, presented him with a new $15 suit of clothes.

Wheeling is already boasting of what they will do with the Fort Wayne colts when they get to that place. The Nailers are talking as if they expect to take three straight games. It's dimes to doughnuts that we will not give them more than one game.

The rivalry between the clubs in the eastern division of the Inter-State league is something fright'ul to behold. They all seem to have it in for each other in such a way that nothing but scalping knives and meat axes can ever settle the question of supremacy.

AMONG THE AMATEURS.

The East Main street base ball team defeated the Lakeside team Saturday by a score of 23 to 15.

The Pennsylvania Juniors Saturday defeated the Royal Blues by a score of 8 to 5. The game was played on the jail flats.

The long talked of game between the Blakes and Flannigans occurred at Centlivre's park. The Flannigans had sixteen runs and the Blakes had thirty-three in the ninth inning and no men out. The game was called on account of darkness. The feature of the game was the pitching of "Spotsy" for the Flannigans.

BASE BALL

At Lakeside park Thursday, Saturday and Sunday. Toledo vs. Fort Wayne. Games called at 3:30.

WRECK OFF VANCOUVER

The Sad Fate of the Cadzow Forest.

Indians Find a Life Buoy Which Bears the Name of the Craft and Tells of Her Fate.

Vancouver, B. C., May 18.—At last some definite news has been received as to the fate of the British bark Cadzow Forest, which has so long been missing, and which has been given up as lost. From news received yesterday it appears that the fears that the vessel was wrecked were only too well founded. It will be remembered that the vessel was last seen off the mouth of the Columbia river, having come up from San Francisco to load grain for Portland. Owing to the storm, she was blown out to sea and never again heard of. The little missionary steamer, Glad Tidings, belonging to the Methodist church, arrived in port from a cruise among the Indian missionary stations last night. While at China Hat, on the west coast of Vancouver island, Captain Allcock reports that some Indians showed him a life buoy bearing the name Cadzow Forest, which they had picked up the day before on the beach. The Indians also say that a large amount of wreckage and lumber was also strewn along the beach.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

Sound Money Democrats Have Little Hope of Controlling It.

Washington, D. C., May 18.—Sound money democrats have about abandoned hope of controlling the Chicago convention. It looks now as if they set a bad example in Michigan by applying the unit rule, and that the free silver men in many of the southern states will insist upon giving the sound money men a dose of their own medicine. There is scarcely a southern state where the democrats did not expect to have divided delegations with the minority for sound money. There is no southern state in which the gold men expected to control the majority of the delegates, but they had hoped to make a fair showing in Georgia, North Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, Tennessee and Texas. With the application of the unit rule, it is the opinion here, they cannot hope to control a vote in a single southern state.

They fear that the free silver men in Kentucky will predominate, and apply the unit rule, thus depriving Mr. Carlisle of the indorsement in his own state for sound money. Senator Lindsay believes that the free silver men will control. He is so confident of it that he told General St. Clair, of West Virginia, a few day ago, that he had decided not to be a candidate for delegate to the Chicago convention. Much depends upon Illinois and Indiana. The chances are that Illinois will elect a free silver delegation.

Mills Destroyed.

Terreon, Mexico, May 18.—The large flouring mills and grain elevators of the Allianza Manufacturing company, situated here, was destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $150,000. The mills had recently been equipped with new machinery and were the largest in northern Mexico. The amount of insurance is small. There was a large stock of grain consumed.

ROYAL AFFAIR.

The Princess of Wales Holds a Reception.

Mrs. Calvin S. Brice and Mrs. Douglass Grant Among the Distinguished Guests.

London, May 18.—The princess of Wales, assisted by her daughters and Prince Charles, of Denmark, held the largest drawing room reception of the season at Buckingham palace today, in behalf of the queen. The weather was warm and sultry, but great crowds lined the hall. The marquis of Salisbury and the commander-in-chief, Lord Wolseley, as well as all the members of the diplomatic corps, were among those present. The Americans presented were the duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Conseulo Vanderbilt, Mrs. Calvin S. Brice and her two daughters and Mrs. Douglas Grant, of New York. Mrs. Henry Asquith, formerly Miss Margot Tennant, was also presented. Thos. F. Bayard, United States ambassador, and Mrs. Bayard and Mr. Carter, Mr. Bayard's secretary, were the only representatives of the United States embassy present.

LYNCHING EXPECTED

Because of the Killing of Two People in Texas.

San Antonio, Texas, May 18.—There is a prospect of a lynching taking place in Duvall county, south of here. Two weeks ago Benito Ortiz and Ydelfonso Garza, two well known and highly respected citizens of that county, were shot and killed from ambush. Circumstances pointed to Valentine Colonza as being the murderer, and he has just been arrested and has made full confession of his guilt. The murdered men had numerous friends and they are making strong threats of lynching Colonza. The latter is in jail. He was one of the leaders in the Garza revolution of three and four years ago, and was out on bail to answer to the charge of violating the United States neutrality laws, in the federal court.

SHIVELY FOR GOVERNOR.

Democrats of Northern Indiana to Urge His Nomination.

Ligonier, Ind., May 18.—Northern Indiana will present the name of D. F. Shively for the democratic nomination for governor. The positive withdrawal of Mayor Taggart, of Indianapolis, has resulted in a movement to nominate Mr. Shively. He represented the Thirteenth district in congress four terms, declining a renomination for a fifth term. He is now practicing law. The movement to bring Mr. Shively into the contest has met with the indorsement of the party managers in all sections of the state and his candidacy will be vigorously pushed.

CURFEW LAW IN EFFECT.

Naperville Children Obeyed the Statute to the Letter.

Naperville, Ill., May 18.—The curfew bell ordinance, passed by the city council several weeks ago, requiring every girl or boy under fifteen years of age in this city to be off the streets between the hours of 9 p. m. and 6 a. m., unless accompanied by parents or guardians, went into effect here Saturday night and caused considerable excitement. Unlike other evenings, the streets were deserted early by the younger people, who feared arrest. No arrests were made.

Price of Coal.

Philadelphia, May 18.—It is stated here on good authority that many of the coal companies that took orders at April prices and are now filling them will cancel all that are not filled by the end of the month. All dealers have been notified of this action and it has created a better demand for anthracite coal. After May 30, the new circular price is to prevail and there is talk of making a further advance of twenty-five cents a ton on July 1, to be followed by another on October 1.

Murder at Catskill.

Catskill, N. Y., May 18.—Joseph Caserta, a leading member of the Italian colony, was murdered last night by a fellow countryman named Pascal. The deed was committed at a christening at which there had been considerable indulgence in liquor. A quarrel arising among the men about a woman, Pascal seized a gun and shot Caserta through the back. Pascal was arrested.

If You Will Use a Little Reasoning

and not be so influenced by the claim that catarrh is a blood disease, you can easily prove that catarrh is climatic. Have you not the severest catarrhal attacks during winter and spring, and have you but little evidence of catarrh during the summer? Yes. Well, this proves it is a climatic disorder, inflaming the membrane of the nasal passages. It is a waste of time and money to invest in blood remedies. The proper treatment is a local application, and the most prompt to cure is that popular remedy, Ely's Cream Balm.
